Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 31st January, 1922 :—

No. 5 OF 1922

BILL

further to amend the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Land Acquisition Act, 1891; It is hereby enacted as follows :— I of 1894

1. This Act may be called the Land Acquisition (Amendment) Act, 1922.

Short title

2. In sub-section (3) of section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1891 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), after the words "The said declaration," the words "except as hereinafter provided" shall be inserted. I of 1894

Amendment of section 6, Act I of 1894.

3. To section 7 of the said Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely :—

Amendment of section 7, Act I of 1894

"Provided that no officer who is responsible for the selection of the land to be acquired, or who has made the preliminary inquiry under section 4, shall be appointed Collector under this section."

4. In section 9 of the said Act,—

Amendment of section 9, Act I of 1894.

(a) in sub-section (1), after the words "and that," the words "objection, if any, to such taking possession of the land and" shall be inserted;

(b) in sub-section (2), after the words "the nature of their respective interests in the land," the words "the reasons for their objection, if any, to its acquisition" shall be inserted; and in the same sub-section after the words "for such interests," the words "as they claim in the land" shall be inserted.

5. For section 11 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Substitution of new section for section 11, Act I of 1894

"11. (1) On the day so fixed, or on any other day to which the inquiry has been adjourned, the Collector shall first proceed to inquire into the objection, if any, which any person interested has stated pursuant to a notice given under section 9 to the proposed acquisition of the land, and shall pass orders either allowing or rejecting the objection. The acquisition of the land shall be objected to only on the ground that the purpose for which the land is required is not a public purpose within the meaning of the Act, or that the proposed acquisition is malicious or vexatious:

Inquiry and award by Collector.

Provided that, in the case of big projects such as railways, irrigation canals or roads, the proposed acquisition shall be presumed to be proper until the contrary is proved.

(2) If either the officer applying for the acquisition of the land or the person objecting to it is dissatisfied with the order of the Collector in their behalf, he may, by written application made to the Collector within a month of the Collector's order being communicated to him, require that the matter be referred by the Collector for the determination of the Court. The provisions of sections 18 to 22 shall, as far as may be, apply to inquiries by the Court under this clause. The decision of the Court shall be final.

(3) If the Court upholds the objection to the proposed acquisition of the land, no further action shall be taken in the matter. If no objection to the acquisition has been duly made, or if an objection has been made, but finally set aside by a competent authority, the Collector shall proceed to inquire into the objections, if any, which any person has stated pursuant to a notice issued under section 9 to the measurements made under section 8 and into the value of the land and into the respective interests of the persons claiming the compensation, and shall make an award under his hand of—

(i) the true area of the land;

(ii) the compensation which in his opinion should be allowed for the land; and

(iii) the apportionment of the said compensation among all the persons known or believed to be interested in the land, of whom, or of whose claims, he has information whether or not they have respectively appeared before him.

(4) Nothing contained in clauses (1) to (3) of this section shall affect the provisions of section 17."

Amendment of section 35, Act I of 1894.

6. In sub-section (3) of section 35 of the said Act, after the words "apportionment thereof," the words "or in case any person interested objects to the acquisition" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 36, Act I of 1894.

7. To sub-section (1) of section 36 of the said Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that the propriety of the proposed acquisition itself is not in dispute."

Amendment of section 47, Act I of 1894.

8. In section 47 of the said Act, the following words shall be omitted, namely:—

"he shall, if a Magistrate, enforce the surrender of the land to himself, and, if not a Magistrate."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Land Acquisition Act, 1894, as it stands, makes no provisions against unlawful or vexatious acquisition of land. This is felt as a real grievance, and the Bill is intended to remove this grievance. As subsidiary provisions the Bill lays down that the officer who is responsible for the selection of the land to be acquired or for the preliminary inquiry under section 4 of the Act, shall not be appointed as Collector, and that the Collector shall not enforce his own orders. It is desirable that the acquiring officer should enter on his quasi-judicial duties with an open mind.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 1st February, 1922 :—

No. 7 OF 1922.

A

BILL

further to amend the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912.

IV of 1912.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Lunacy (Amendment) Act, 1922.

IV of 1912.

Amendment of section 3, Act IV of 1912.

2. In section 3 of the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(a) in clause (1), after the word 'asylum' where it occurs for the second time, the words 'or mental hospital' shall be inserted; and

(b) to clause (2) the following shall be added, namely :—

"together with any other charges specified in this behalf by the Governor General in Council, in exercise of any power conferred upon him by this Act."

Amendment of section 84, Act IV of 1912.

3. To section 84 of the said Act, the following words shall be added, namely :—

"if it is satisfied that provision has been or will be made for the curative treatment therein of persons suffering from mental diseases."

Insertion of new section 84A in Act IV of 1912.

4. After section 84 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

Power to cancel licence if provision for curative treatment is insufficient.

"84A. If in any licensed asylum no provision for curative treatment has been made, or the Local Government considers that the provision made is insufficient, the Local Government may require the person in charge of the asylum to take such measures for making or supplementing such provision as it may deem necessary, and, if such person does not comply with the requisition within a reasonable time, the Local Government may revoke the licence."

5. After section 89 of the said Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely :—

Insertion of new sections 89A. and 89B in Act IV of 1912.

"89A. The Governor General in Council may, by general or special order, prescribe the amount payable on account of the cost of maintenance of lunatics detained in any asylum for the cost of whose maintenance any Local Government is liable, and the proportions in which such amount shall be payable respectively by the Local Governments so liable. Any such amount may include charges on account of the upkeep of the asylum and of the capital cost of the establishment of the asylum.

Fixation of cost of maintenance.

89B. (1). When under the provisions of this Act the cost of the maintenance of a lunatic is payable by the Government, then such cost shall be payable—

Incidence of cost of maintenance payable by Government.

(a) in the case of a lunatic not domiciled in British India, by the Local Government of the province in which the reception order or the order under section 25, as the case may be, was made; and

(b) in the case of a lunatic domiciled in British India, by the Local Government of the province in which the lunatic has last resided for a period of five years before the reception order or the order under section 25, as the case may be, was made; or, if the lunatic has not been resident in any one province for such period, by the Local Government of the province in which such order was made.

(2) If any question arises as to the incidence of the cost of maintenance of any lunatic under sub-section (1), the question shall be referred to the Governor General in Council, and his decision thereon shall be final."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912, so as—

(1) to permit of the designation of lunatic asylums as mental hospitals; and

(2) to provide for the recovery of charges for lunatics maintained in an asylum of one province who belong to another province.

2. Modern opinion is in favour of asylums being regarded as hospitals for the treatment of mental cases, and not as homes in which lunatics can be interned and restrained, and in the present condition of asylums in India, it is, therefore, considered desirable that the curative treatment which should be available in these institutions should be emphasised. It is, however, necessary to retain the word "asylum" in the Act, because of its use in other legislation; but by making the definition cover not only an institution designated as an "asylum," but also one designated as a "mental hospital", it will be possible for Local Governments to cause their institutions to be styled either by the one name or by the other, or by a combination of the two. The proposed amendments in clauses 3 and 4 of the Bill are consequential to this proposal.

3. Under the Reform Scheme the maintenance in an asylum of one province of a lunatic belonging to another province should be regarded as service rendered by the former province to the latter, for which payment should be made under Devolution Rule 14 (e).

It is probable that great increases in the number of lunatics so maintained in asylums of provinces to which they do not belong will follow om the substitution of large central asylums for small district asylums, nd it is considered that upon the adoption of this policy any substantial nprovement in the condition of asylums in India must largely depend. he Bill, therefore, proposes that, so far as lunatics domiciled in India are ncerned, in any case in which the cost of maintenance will fall upon a ocal Government, the Local Government to meet the cost shall be the ocal Government of the province in which the lunatic has last resided r a period of five years. If there is no such Local Government then, the st would fall upon the Local Government of the province from which the natic was sent to the asylum. In order to cover the case of central ylums established to meet the needs of more than one province, it is rther provided that the cost of maintenance may include charges on count of the capital cost of the establishment of the asylum.

BRITISH POSSESSIONS.

Caution when approaching British Ports.

No. 71 (second publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 1 of 1922), are republished :—

PART I.

Closing of Ports.

Former Notice.—No. 1 of 1921. (This office No. 69 of 1921); hereby cancelled.

(1) My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having taken into consideration the fact that it may be necessary to forbid all entrance to certain ports of the Empire, this is to give notice that on approaching the shores of the United Kingdom, or any of the ports or localities of the British Empire, a sharp look-out should be kept for the signals described in the following paragraph, and for the vessels mentioned in paragraph (5), Part II, of this notice, and the distinguishing and other signals made by them. In the event of such signals being displayed, the port or locality should be approached with great caution, as it may be apprehended that obstructions may exist.

(2) If entrance to a port is prohibited three red vertical lights by night, or three red vertical balls by day, will be exhibited in some conspicuous position, in or near to its approach, which signals will also be shown by the vessels indicated in paragraph (5), Part II, of this notice.

If these signals are displayed, vessels must approach the port with the greatest caution and implicitly obey all orders or signals given them by the Examination vessel or signal station.

(3) At some ports or localities at home or abroad, search-lights are occasionally exhibited for exercise.

Instructions have been given to avoid directing moveable search-lights during practice on to vessels under way, but mariners are warned that great care should be taken to keep a sharp look-out for the signals indicated in paragraph (2) above, when search-lights are observed to be working.

PART II.

Examination Service.

(4) In certain circumstances it is also necessary to take special measures to examine vessels desiring to enter ports or localities at home or abroad.

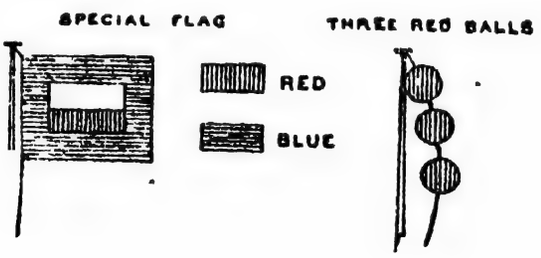
(5) In such case, vessels carrying the distinguishing flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (7) will be charged with the duty of examining ships which desire to enter the port and of allotting positions in which they shall anchor. If Government vessels, or vessels belonging to the local port authority, are found patrolling in the offing, merchant vessels are advised to communicate with such vessels with a view to obtaining information as to the course on which they should approach the port. Such communication will not be necessary in cases where the pilot on board has already received this information from the local authorities.

(6) As the institution of the Examination Service at any port will never be publicly advertised, especial care should be taken in approaching the ports, by day or night, to keep a sharp look-out for any vessel carrying the flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (7), and to be ready to "bring to" at once when hailed by her or warned by the firing of a gun or sound rocket

In approaching by night any British port in the United Kingdom or abroad, serious delay and risk will be avoided if four efficient all round lanterns, two red and two white, are kept available for use.

(7) By day the distinguishing flag of the Examination Steamer will be a special flag (white and red horizontal surrounded by a blue border).

Also, three red vertical balls if the port is closed.



Usually the Examination Steamers will fly the blue ensign, but in certain circumstances they may fly the white ensign.

By night the steamer will carry :—

(a) Three red vertical lights if the port is closed.
(b) Three white vertical lights if the port is open.

The above lights will be carried in addition to the ordinary navigation lights, and will show an unbroken light around the horizon.

(8) Masters are warned that, when approaching a British port where the Examination Service is in force, they must have the signal letters of their vessel ready to hoist immediately the Examination Steamer makes the signal : "What ship is that ?"

(9) Masters are warned that, before attempting to enter any port when the Examination Service is in force, they must in their own interests strictly obey all instructions given to them by the Examination Steamer.

Whilst at anchor in the Examination Anchorage, Masters are warned that it is forbidden, except for the purpose of avoiding accident, to do any of the following things, without permission from the Examining Officer :—

To lower any boat.
To communicate with the shore or with other ships.
To move the ship.
To work cables.
To allow any person or thing to leave the ship.

(10) In case of fog, Masters are enjoined to use the utmost care, and the port should be approached with caution.

(11) When the Examination Service is in force merchant vessels when approaching ports are especially cautioned against making use of private signals of any description, either by day or night; the use of them will render a vessel liable to be fired on.

(12) The pilots attached to the ports will be acquainted with the regulations to be followed.

PART III.

Mine-sweeping Operations.

H. M. Vessels engaged in mine-sweeping operations or exercises are hampered to a considerable extent in their manœuvring powers.

With a view to indicating the nature of the work on which they are engaged, these vessels will show the signals hereinafter mentioned. For the public safety all other vessels, whether steamers or sailing craft, should endeavour to keep out of the way of vessels flying these signals and not approach them inside the distances mentioned herein, specially remembering that it is dangerous to pass between the vessels of a pair or group sweeping together.

1. Signals that will be Shown by Day.

(a) By vessels working singly :—

A black ball at the foremast head, and a similar ball at each yard-arm or where they can best be seen.

Vessels showing this signal should not be approached nearer than 900 yards (822^{m}9).

(b) By vessels working in pairs or groups :—

A black ball at the foremast head, and a similar ball at the yard-arm or where it can best be seen, on that side on which it is dangerous to pass.

Vessels should not pass within a distance of 400 yards (365^{m}8) astern of a pair or group of sweepers, or when more than one pair or group are working in company within a distance of 400 yards (365^{m}8) astern of the rear pair or group. They should on no account attempt to pass between pairs or groups working in company.

2. Signals that will be Shown by Night.

As for day, except that all round green lights will be used in a similar manner to and in place of the black balls.

CALCUTTA TRADE FLUCTUATIONS.

THE following tables are intended to show the trade by all routes, i.e., by rail, river, canal, road, and sea, of the Calcutta block* in certain selected articles during the nine months, April to December, 1921, as compared with the corresponding period of 1920 and 1919. The statistics have been compiled from returns furnished by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, Railway Audit Offices, Steamer Companies, the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta, the Collectors of the 24-Parganas and Howrah, and the Assistant Engineer, Calcutta Canals.

The value of the imports by rail, river, road, and sea (coastwise) of Indian cotton piecegoods showed a decrease of 10 per cent, the total value amounting to Rs. 7,93 lakhs as against Rs. 8,86 lakhs in 1920. The imports of raw jute amounted to 3,126,000 bales as against 4,311,000 bales,—a decrease of 1,185,000 bales or 27 per cent. The importations of gunny bags also showed a decrease of 106 million bags (220 million bags against 326 millions in the preceding year). The total imports of oilseeds (linseed and rape and mustard seed) decreased by 273,000 maunds, or 5 per cent, from 5,312,000 maunds to 5,039,000 maunds and those of sugar also declined by 230,000 maunds, or 36 per cent, from 635,000 maunds to 405,000 maunds. The imports of tea increased from 1,685,000 maunds to 2,089,000 maunds, an increase of 404,000 maunds or 24 per cent.

The exports of gunny bags (including the exports by sea to foreign countries) decreased from 1,041 million to 799 million bags, but the shipments of gunny bags to other Indian ports increased from 33 to 48 millions in number in the period under review. The quantity of kerosene oil despatched from Calcutta and Budge-Budge by internal routes and by sea (coastwise) also rose from 4,041,000 maunds to 4,297,000 maunds, an increase of 256,000 maunds or 6 per cent.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No 704L., dated the 4th March, 1922.—The following Bill was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 2nd March, 1922, and is hereby published for information, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto :—

THE BENGAL VILLAGE-CHAUKIDARI (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1922.

A

BILL

further to amend the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870, in the manner hereinafter appearing ; Ben. Act VI of 1870.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Village-chaukidari (Amendment) Act, 1922.

New section substituted for section 12 of Bengal Act VI of 1870

2. For section 12 of the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"12. The salaries of chaukidars appointed for any village shall be determined by the District Magistrate after consideration of the views of the panchayat of the village." [Cf. Ben. Act V of 1919, s. 21 (1).]

Salaries of chaukidars

Amendment of section 15.

3. In the proviso to section 15 of the said Act, for the words "one rupee" the words "two rupees" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 12 of the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870 (Bengal Act VI of 1870), provides that the salaries of chaukidars shall not be less than two nor more than six rupees a month. The maximum limit of salary, fixed over fifty years ago, is inadequate in modern economic conditions and increasing difficulty is experienced in securing and retaining chaukidars on the salary now admissible. The object of this Bill is to remove the existing legal restriction which limits the salaries of chaukidars, to raise the maximum amount which may be assessed on any one person and also to provide that the salaries shall be determined after consideration of the views of the village panchayat.

BRITISH POSSESSIONS.

Caution when approaching British Ports.

No. 71 (third publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 1 of 1922), are republished :—

PART I.

Closing of Ports.

Former Notice.—No. 1 of 1921. (This office No. 59 of 1921); hereby cancelled.

(1) My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having taken into consideration the fact that it may be necessary to forbid all entrance to certain ports of the Empire, this is to give notice that on approaching the shores of the United Kingdom, or any of the ports or localities of the British Empire, a sharp look-out should be kept for the signals described in the following paragraph, and for the vessels mentioned in paragraph (5), Part II, of this notice, and the distinguishing and other signals made by them. In the event of such signals being displayed, the port or locality should be approached with great caution, as it may be apprehended that obstructions may exist.

(2) If entrance to a port is prohibited three red vertical lights by night, or three red vertical balls by day, will be exhibited in some conspicuous position, in or near to its approach, which signals will also be shown by the vessels indicated in paragraph (5), Part II, of this notice.

If these signals are displayed, vessels must approach the port with the greatest caution and implicitly obey all orders or signals given them by the Examination vessel or signal station.

(3) At some ports or localities at home or abroad, search-lights are occasionally exhibited for exercise.

Instructions have been given to avoid directing moveable search-lights during practice on to vessels under way, but mariners are warned that great care should be taken to keep a sharp look-out for the signals indicated in paragraph (2) above, when search-lights are observed to be working.

PART II.

Examination Service.

(4) In certain circumstances it is also necessary to take special measures to examine vessels desiring to enter ports or localities at home or abroad.

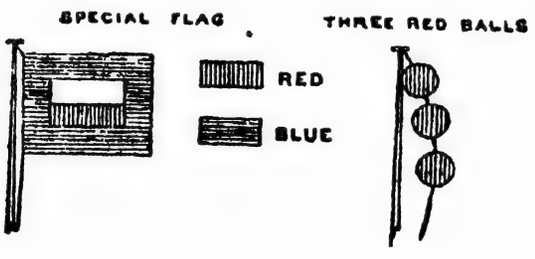
(5) In such case, vessels carrying the distinguishing flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (7) will be charged with the duty of examining ships which desire to enter the port and of allotting positions in which they shall anchor. If Government vessels, or vessels belonging to the local port authority, are found patrolling in the offing, merchant vessels are advised to communicate with such vessels with a view to obtaining information as to the course on which they should approach the port. Such communication will not be necessary in cases where the pilot on board has already received this information from the local authorities.

(6) As the institution of the Examination Service at any port will never be publicly advertised, especial care should be taken in approaching the ports, by day or night, to keep a sharp look-out for any vessel carrying the flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (7), and to be ready to "bring to" at once when hailed by her or warned by the firing of a gun or sound rocket.

In approaching by night any British port in the United Kingdom or abroad, serious delay and risk will be avoided if four efficient all round lanterns, two red and two white, are kept available for use.

(7) By day the distinguishing flag of the Examination Steamer will be a special flag (white and red horizontal surrounded by a blue border).

Also, three red vertical balls if the port is closed.



Usually the Examination Steamers will fly the blue ensign, but in certain circumstances they may fly the white ensign.

By night the steamer will carry :—

(a) Three red vertical lights if the port is closed.

(b) Three white vertical lights if the port is open.

The above lights will be carried in addition to the ordinary navigation lights, and will show an unbroken light around the horizon.

(8) Masters are warned that, when approaching a British port where the Examination Service is in force, they must have the signal letters of their vessel ready to hoist immediately the Examination Steamer makes the signal : "What ship is that ?"

(9) Masters are warned that, before attempting to enter any port when the Examination Service is in force, they must in their own interests strictly obey all instructions given to them by the Examination Steamer.

Whilst at anchor in the Examination Anchorage, Masters are warned that it is forbidden, except for the purpose of avoiding accident, to do any of the following things, without permission from the Examining Officer :—

To lower any boat.
To communicate with the shore or with other ships.
To move the ship.
To work cables.
To allow any person or thing to leave the ship.

(10) In case of fog, Masters are enjoined to use the utmost care, and the port should be approached with caution.

(11) When the Examination Service is in force merchant vessels when approaching ports are especially cautioned against making use of private signals of any description, either by day or night; the use of them will render a vessel liable to be fired on.

(12) The pilots attached to the ports will be acquainted with the regulations to be followed.

PART III.

Mine-sweeping Operations.

H. M. Vessels engaged in mine-sweeping operations or exercises are hampered to a considerable extent in their manœuvring powers.

With a view to indicating the nature of the work on which they are engaged, these vessels will show the signals hereinafter mentioned. For the public safety all other vessels, whether steamers or sailing craft, should endeavour to keep out of the way of vessels flying these signals and not approach them inside the distances mentioned herein, specially remembering that it is dangerous to pass between the vessels of a pair or group sweeping together.

1. Signals that will be Shown by Day.

(a) By vessels working singly :—

A black ball at the foremast head, and a similar ball at each yard-arm or where they can best be seen.

Vessels showing this signal should not be approached nearer than 900 yards (822^{m}9).

(b) By vessels working in pairs or groups :—

A black ball at the foremast head, and a similar ball at the yard-arm or where it can best be seen, on that side on which it is dangerous to pass.

Vessels should not pass within a distance of 400 yards (365^{m}8) astern of a pair or group of sweepers, or when more than one pair or group are working in company within a distance of 400 yards (365^{m}8) astern of the rear pair or group. They should on no account attempt to pass between pairs or groups working in company.

2. Signals that will be Shown by Night.

As for day, except that all round green lights will be used in a similar manner to and in place of the black balls.

REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE EXCISE DEPARTMENT IN BENGAL DURING THE YEAR 1920-21.

NOTIFICATION.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E.

No. 1039Ex.—The 2nd March 1922.—The following extracts from the report of the Commissioner of Excise and Salt on the administration of the Excise Department in Bengal during the year 1920-21 are published for general information.

J. A. L. SWAN,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

No. 5463E., dated Calcutta, the 20th October 1921.

From—Rai Bahadur S. K Raha, Officiating Commissioner of Excise and Salt, Bengal,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Department of Agriculture and Industries.

I have the honour to submit the following report on the administration of the Excise Department in the Presidency of Bengal for the year 1920-21.

Mr. S. C. Mukerjee, I.C.S., was in charge of the department throughout the year.

* * * * *

4. Administrative changes and reforms.—(1) Under Government Notification No. 174 T.—S.R., dated the 31st July 1920. the concession of issuing special licenses to the members of the hill or aboriginal tribes for the home brewing of pachwai, up to such limit as the Collector may consider reasonable to meet the requirements of special occasions, such as marriages, etc., at the rate of annas 8 for each household for each such occasion, was extended to the districts of Bankura and Dinajpur, as a large number of cases of illicit manufacture of pachwai were detected in connection with marriages and other religious ceremonies and the Santals pleaded that they could not use pachwai manufactured in a shop on such occasions.

* * * * *

(3) Under Government Notification No. 313 T.—S.R., dated the 9th October 1920, the retail selling price of pachwai by licensed vendors under the fixed-fee system in the Asansol subdivision of the district of Burdwan was raised from Rs. 16 to Rs. 18 for each maund of rice used in its manufacture.

(4) Under Government Notifications Nos. 3361 S.R., 3362 S.R. and 3363 S.R., dated the 29th November 1920, "Qualified veterinary practitioners" have, on the representation of the Superintendent of the Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal, been empowered to prescribe cocaine in course of their practice.

* * * * *

(6) Under Government Notification No. 3647 S.R., dated the 20th December 1920, the selling price of excise opium in all districts in the Presidency of Bengal was raised, with effect from the 1st April 1921, from Rs. 50 to Rs. 60 per seer owing to the rise in its cost price.

(7) Under Government Notifications Nos. 3658 S.R. and 3660 S.R., dated the 21st December 1920, the rates of retail prices of, and duty on, country spirit were increased, to check abnormal rise in consumption, by As. 14 per gallon of 25° U.P., As. 10-6 per gallon of 40° U.P., As. 8-4 per gallon of 50° or 55° U.P., and As. 5-8 per gallon of 70° U.P. in the fixed-fee districts of Hooghly, Howrah, Calcutta and the 24-Parganas and under Government Notifications Nos. 3718 S.R. and 3720 S.R., dated the 27th December 1920, they were increased for the same reason, by As. 12 per gallon of 25° or 30° U.P., As. 7-6 per gallon of 50° or 55° U.P.. As. 6 per gallon of 60° U.P., and As. 4-6 per gallon of 70° U.P. in the districts of Bankura, Murshidabad, Dinajpur and Malda.

* * * * *

(9) Under Government Notification No. 496 D., dated the 1st March 1921, the rates of duty on foreign liquor imposed under section 27 of the Bengal Excise Act, 1909, as amended. were increased on the increase of the rates of tariff duty on imported foreign liquors.

(10) Under Government Notification No. 746 Ex., dated the 11th March 1921, the Excise Commissioner has been empowered to approve medical practitioners, other than those eligible to be registered under any Medical Act in force in India, for the purpose of prescribing cocaine in course of their practice as in the case of opium and morphia drugs.

* * * * *

(12) In accordance with the recommendations of the Calcutta Temperance Federation, and on due consideration of the circumstances, the changes stated below have been made in the Excise Rules :—

(i) Under Government Notification No. 988 Ex., dated the 29th March 1921, the limit of retail sale of country spirit has been reduced to three quart bottles in all the areas where the limit was so long more than three bottles.

(ii) Under Government Notifications Nos. 987 Ex. and 989 Ex., dated the 29th March 1921, the hours of sale of excisable articles and Excise opium have been curtailed as follows :—

(a) The opening hour for premises licensed for the wholesale and retail sale of charas, and for the retail sale of ganja, bhang and opium has been fixed at 10 A.M. throughout the year and for premises licensed for the retail sale of country spirit, tari and pachwai at 11 A.M. throughout the year instead of at 8 A.M. from 16th March to 15th October and at 10 A.M. from 16th October to 15th March.

(b) The closing hour of 9 P.M. throughout the year in the Calcutta district and that of 9 P.M. from 16th March to 15th October and 8 P.M. from 16th October to 15th March in the industrial areas specially named in the rule on the subject have been changed to 8 P.M. throughout the year.

* * * * *

5. Temperance Teaching in Schools.—Lessons on temperance are incorporated in books on hygiene recommended for use in middle and upper primary stages of English and vernacular schools. The revised curriculum for primary schools, which will come into operation from January 1923, does not provide for these lessons.

6. Temperance movements.—As reported last year, District Officers were consulted on some proposals brought forward by temperance workers and the limit of retail sale of country spirit and the hours of sale of excisable articles and opium were curtailed as noted in paragraph 4 (12) above.

The temperance movement at Teknaaf, in the district of Chittagong, mentioned in previous years' reports, continued during the year under report.

Besides these, several District Officers reported anti-drink movements in their districts in connection with the non-co-operation movement, but these movements do not appear to have had any permanent effect on habitual consumers. In some areas the consumption in shops guarded by picketters showed appreciable and temporary decreases. As reported previously, the Excise Department is ready to co-operate with any reasonable temperance movement.

7. Excise Licensing Boards.—In the Calcutta district, the Licensing Boards held meetings to decide, after consideration of objections, the number and location of shops for the retail sale of excisable articles and to discuss other cognate matters.

During the year under report the Calcutta Licensing Board held 9 meetings and the Cossipore-Chitpur, Maniktala, Howrah and Bally Licensing Boards held 2 meetings each. The Calcutta Licensing Board changed the sites of one country spirit shop, two foreign liquor "off," six opium, four ganja and two bhang shops. and the Howrah Licensing Board changed the sites of one country spirit and one tari shop. No other change was made by any of the Licensing Boards either in the number or in the location of the existing shops.

8. Excise Advisory Committees.—In areas outside the Calcutta district, local Excise Advisory Committees were convened to advise the Collectors as regards the number and location of the excise and opium shops. All the recommendations of the Excise Advisory Committees were carefully considered and mostly given effect to. Five country spirit shops, sixteen tari shops, thirteen pachwai shops were abolished; the sites of fourteen country spirit shops, fourteen tari shops, seven pachwai shops, one foreign liquor shop, seven ganja shops and five opium shops were changed; and one country spirit shop, one tari shop, two pachwai shops, one foreign liquor shop, five ganja shops, five opium shops and four bhang shops were newly opened in accordance with their advice.

9. Total revenue and charges * * * * * * The excise revenue and charges of the Presidency for the last five years are shown below:—

Period.	Revenue.	Charges.	Net Revenue.	Percentage of Charges.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1916-17	1,44,07,668	9,65,974	1,34,41,694	6·70

Difference of the past two years.	+15,24,869	+42,073	+14,82,796	—·28

* * * * *

11. Actual Receipts.—Deducting the advance collections (Rs. 4,77,384) for 1921-22 and adding the revenue (Rs. 5,37,891) which was collected in advance in 1919-20, the actual receipts on account of 1920-21 were Rs. 1,96,93,824 against Rs. 1,83,00,289 (after similar adjustment) of the preceding year, showing an increase of Rs. 13,93,535 or 7·61 per cent.

12. Excise Charges * * * * The total expenditure of the Excise and Salt Department, excluding refunds, shows an increase of Rs. 42,409 as compared with 1919-20. The principal increases occurred under the heads of "salaries and establishments" (Rs. 19,467), "allowances" (Rs. 8,223) and "rewards" (Rs. 10,550). The greater part of the increase under "salaries and establishments" was due to the Superintendents on the time-scale having received increments of salary and ministerial officers being allowed to draw ad interim allowance as a part of their pay. The increase under "allowances" was mainly due to increased charges for touring. Expenditure on rewards increased owing to the detection of a larger number of important cases.

13. Revenue under different heads * * * * Revenue increased under all the heads except "receipts from commercial spirits" and "beer." The largest increase of revenue (Rs. 8,89,794) occurred under the head "country spirit," "wines and spirits" (foreign liquors other than beer, medicated wines and commercial spirits) come next with an increase of Rs. 1,73,110, followed by "total receipts from hemp drugs" (Rs. 1,71,609), pachwai (Rs. 1,65,515), opium (Rs. 1,52,093) and tari (Rs. 16,439). The largest decrease (Rs. 32.827) occurred under "commercial spirits including medicated wines."

14. Demand and Collection.— * * * *
Of the gross demand of Rs. 1,96,56,221 a sum of Rs. 1,96,33,317 or 99·88 per cent. was realised. Rupees 2,413 was remitted as irrecoverable. Taking the population of the Presidency of Bengal, according to the census of 1911 to be 45,329,247, the incidence of excise revenue (exclusive of revenue derived from issues of excisable articles to other provinces, Native States and foreign countries) was 6 annas 10 pies against 6 annas 4 pies in the previous year.

15. Results of settlements for the current year up to 31st May 1921.— * * * * * * *
The settlements for the current year 1921-22 show a net increase of Rs. 1,91,477. The results under the different heads are as follows :—

	Rs.
Country spirit	− 1,49,497
Foreign liquor	+ 3,897
Fermented tari	− 1,22,764
Pachwai retail	+ 1,90,932
Hemp drugs	+ 2,09,570

SECTION II—Country Liquor.

* * * * *

COUNTRY SPIRIT.

17. System.—There was no change in the system of supply.

18. Country spirit licenses.—The number of licenses for the sale of country spirit was 1,120 as compared with 1,121 in 1919-20, a decrease of 1 against 27 in the preceding year. In the district of the 24-Parganas two new shops were opened at Birajnagar Hat and Raipur Lot No. 18. One shop in the district of Hooghly was abolished as the villagers objected to its site. One shop each in the districts of Chittagong and Dinajpur was closed, as there was no demand for liquor there.

19. The Fixed-fee system in Calcutta.—The system worked well. On the recommendation of the Calcutta Temperance Federation and on due consideration two more country spirit shops in Calcutta, in addition to the 12 shops of last year, were restricted to "off" sales from the 1st April 1921.

20. The Fixed-fee system in other districts.—The Bengal fixed-fee system was in force in the districts of Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, 24-Parganas, Dacca, Mymensingh, Rangpur, Jalpaiguri and Darjeeling. The introduction of the system in the six districts from the 1st April 1920, mentioned in paragraph 20 of last year's report, was followed by an appreciable decrease in consumption, due partly to the prevailing high prices of necessaries of life and the enhanced rate of duty and price. The system worked sacisfactorily in all the districts.

21. Consumption.—The total consumption of country spirit in the Presidency amounted to 766,572 proof gallons as compared with 755,285 proof gallons in the preceding year, an increase of 11,287 proof gallons.

Consumption increased in 16 districts and decreased in 11. Outside Calcutta, the increase in consumption in Howrah (6,236 proof gallons or 35·9 per cent.) was due to the opening of a good many brick-fields and several jute miles, in Hooghly (10,810 proof gallons or 32·7 per cent.) due to higher wages of the mill hands, in Murshidabad (3,924 proof gallons or 32·1 per cent.) due to the influx of labourers in connection with brick-work, tannery, etc., in Bankura (9,353 proof gallons or 31·2 per cent.) due to the enormous business in lac, in Nadia (1,601 proof gallons or 17·9 per cent.) owing to the influx of a large number of up-country coolies in brick-fields, in 24-Parganas (10,592 proof gallons or 17·7 per cent.) due to the increased prosperity of mill hands who received extra emoluments in the shape of bonus during the year, in Malda (2,676 proof gallons or 17·1 per cent.) owing to keen bidding and to the liking of Santals for cheaper liquor, in Midnapore (6,083 proof gallons or 16·2 per cent.) due to better supervision by the inspecting staff over the licensees, and in Khulna (621 proof gallons or 14·3 per cent.) due to the detection of malpractices indulged in by the vendors.

The districts in which the decrease exceeded 10 per cent. were Jalpaiguri (27,217 proof gallons or 57·1 per cent.), Mymensingh (11,496 proof gallons or 51·2 per cent.), Dacca (6,423 proof gallons or 40·07 per cent.), Rangpur (7,122 proof gallons or 38·7 per cent.), Burdwan (9,113 proof gallons or 18·7 per cent.), and Darjeeling (5,732 proof gallons or 16·7 per cent.). The decreases were due partly to the introduction of the Bengal Fixed Fee System, partly to the picketting towards the end of the year and to local reasons, e.g., the slump in work in tea-gardens in Jalpaiguri and Darjeeling, slump in the hide trade in Rangpore, increase in retail price in Burdwan, competition with cheap foreign liquor in Dacca and Mymensingh.

22. Total revenue from country spirits.—The total revenue—license and distillery fees and duty—from country spirit was Rs. 89,97,313, against Rs. 81,07,519, an increase of Rs. 8,89,794. The revenue derived from duty and distillery fees increased by Rs. 9,65,257 and that from license fees decreased by Rs. 75,463.

23. Convictions for drunkenness and action taken aganist licensees for permitting it.— * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * In Calcutta 7,836 persons were convicted of drunkenness, as compared with 8.792 persons in the previous year, but no statistics were taken to show what proportions of these cases were due to country spirit, tari and foreign liquor, respectively. The figures include 290 against 819 of 1919-20 in the Howrah Municipality, a decrease of 529 which the Magistrate of Howrah attributes to the anti-drink propaganda worked in that municipality during the year. Two cases were reported, one from each of the districts of Bakarganj and Tippera, in which the vendors of country spirit had permitted drunkenness and disorderly conduct in or near their licensed premises. All these cases were dealt with under section 65 of the Bengal Excise Act. One tari vendor was similarly dealt with in Bankura.

24. Distilleries and warehouses.—From the 1st April 1921, wholesale licenses for five years for the supply of country spirits were granted to Messrs. Haji Ismail Sait & Sons, Messrs. Carew & Co., Ltd., and the Bengal Distilleries Company, Limited. The contractors have their distilleries at Russa in the district of 24-Parganas, Asansol in Burdwan and Konnagar in the district of Hooghly, respectively, for manufacturing the spirit. The area supplied by Messrs. Haji Ismail Sait & Sons is the whole of the Calcutta district as defined in section 2(4) of the Bengal Excise Act, the Sadar subdivision of Howrah and the Sadar subdivision of the 24-Parganas. The remaining districts of the province are supplied by the other two contractors. The cost price of liquor paid to Messrs. Haji Ismail Sait & Sons is Re. 1-12 per L. P. gallon and that to Messrs. Carew & Co. and the Bengal Distilleries Company, Limited, is Re. 1-11 per L. P. gallon. These prices will undergo revision every year. During the year the Harlequin distillery in Calcutta was abolished in October and the Alliance distillery in 24-Parganas in March last. The Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Laboratory was opened in March 1921.

26. The tree-tax system in Hooghly and Howrah.—The tree-tax system which was introduced year before last in the Sadar and Serampore subdivisions of the Hooghly district and the whole of the Howrah district (with the exception of the areas included in the Calcutta district) continued in the same areas during the year under report.

In Hooghly most of the shops were settled without much difficulty. As reported last year, the gur or molasses-makers complained of the bad effects of liming the pots on the quality of gur and punishment for malpractices had the effect of scaring away most of the tappers, with the result that the manufacture of gur declined considerably in the district. The system undoubtedly continued to exercise a check over illicit manufacture of tari from unmarked trees and unrestricted drinking, and if the licenses for domestic consumption of fermented tari be restricted, tari drinking will be brought under better control; from the financial point of view, the Collector says, the system does not appear to be satisfactory. The total number of tree-tapping licenses issued were :—

	1919-20.	1920-21.
(1) Number issued on application of vendors ...	960	1,048
(2) Number issued to tappers on their own application	Nil	Nil
(3) Number issued to tree-owners for domestic consumption	2,278	1,617

The fermented tari revenue of the district including tree-tax increased by Rs. 3,942, as a result of the tree-tax and better valuation of shops. The increase would have been still higher but for the anti-drink movement set on foot in the district since January last.

In Howrah also there was no difficulty in settling the shops, though the system has not yet been popular with the vendors or the general public; nor do the owners of the tari-producing trees like it. As in the last year, the tree owners have been demanding increased rents for their trees, which have risen from 3 annas to 6 annas in the case of date trees and from Re. 1 to Rs. 1-8 and sometimes Rs. 2 in the case of palmyra trees. The number of tree-tapping licenses issued were :—

	1919-20.	1920-21.
(1) Number issued on application of vendors ...	1,500	1,760
(2) Number issued to tappers on their own application	Nil	2
(3) Number issued to tree-owners for domestic consumption	1,510	2,715

The increase in the number of tapping licenses issued to vendors was due to an increase in the number of trees tapped by them which, however, does not mean that the consumption of tari increased during the year under report but that an effective check on illicit tapping by vendors was made by the closer supervision of inspecting officers. The tari revenue of the district shows an increase of Rs. 15,765 due to the shops being settled at higher fees. The receipt under the head "tree-tax" was Rs. 29,907 against Rs. 17,232 during the last year.

27. Statistics.—The total number of licenses issued for the sale of fermented and fresh tari increased from 2,068 to 2,114 and the total receipts from Rs. 5,19,964 to Rs. 5,36,403.

28. Fermented tari.—The number of fermented tari licenses decreased from 629 to 620. The chief decrease was effected in Hooghly by the abolition of nine shops. The bulk of the fermented tari revenue is derived from the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions and the district of Malda, which contributed Rs. 5,00,775 out of a total revenue under this head of Rs. 5,31,595. This amount includes Rs. 27,638 and Rs. 26,500 as license fees and Rs. 35,738 and Rs. 29,907 on account of tree-tax for the districts of Hooghly and Howrah, respectively. License fees including the tree-tax fees increased by Rs. 16,361 as compared with the previous year. The increase was most marked in Hooghly (Rs. 3,942), Howrah (Rs. 15,765), Rajshahi (Rs. 1,443) and Malda (Rs. 4,106), whilst there was a decrease of Rs. 10,939 in Calcutta.

* * * * *

PACHWAI.

30. Licenses.—The total number of licenses issued for retail sale, home-brewing (annual) and manufacture on special occasions was 36,222 as compared with 35,367 in 1919-20.

	1919-20	1920-21.
Retail sale	1,206	1,239
Home-brewing (annual)	30,763	34,538
Manufacture on special occasions	398	445

The retail price of the lower strength of country spirit having been enhanced, some of the lower classes in the districts of Burdwan, Bankura and Midnapore who cannot afford to pay for country spirits have taken to pachwai.

31. Fixed-fee system.—The Bengal fixed-fee system worked satisfactorily in the Asansol subdivision, and better control was exercised over the pachwai shops and cleaner and better arrangements were made regarding the water-supply and the drainage therein. The revenue increased by Rs. 1,44,212 during the year.

32. Revenue.—The revenue from retail license fees increased from Rs. 7,98,938 to Rs. 9,60,834. The increase was considerable in Burdwan (Rs. 1,36,223) and Bankura (Rs. 22,447). In the former district it was due to the successful working of the pachwai shops in the Asansol subdivision under the Bengal fixed-fee system whilst in the latter it was due to fair harvest during the year.

The revenue from home-brewing licenses increased from Rs. 54,208 to Rs. 57,827.

SECTION III.—Foreign Liquor.

* * * * *

34. Clearances of foreign liquor from the Custom Houses, Calcutta and Chittagong.—The following statistics showing clearances on payment of duty, both direct and from bond, from Custom Houses are quoted from statements furnished by the Collectors of Customs, Calcutta and Chittagong :—

* Revised figures.

The Collector of Customs, Chittagong, reports that the imports were influenced by increase of trade and higher rate of duty imposed on liquors. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, explains the statistics for the Port of Calcutta in 1920-21 as follows :—

"Ale, Beer and Porter.—A very large increase in imports from the United Kingdom has to be recorded, the figure reached being 559,586 gallons. This displaced much Japanese beer, imports of which fell to 106,150 gallons, while prohibition almost entirely eliminated imports from the United States. Only limited quantities of Dutch and German beers have as yet appeared on the market.

"Spirits.—Imports of brandy from France, after a bad year in 1919-20, recovered to a more normal figure, 83,880 gallons. More whisky was imported, practically all from the United Kingdom, and other sorts of spirits also advanced, except rum from Java, reduced imports of which account for the considerable decline in the total figure. Of 146,615 gallons imported from Java, nearly one-third was denatured on landing.

"Wines.—Imports of wines again advanced, particularly champagne and other sparkling wines and still red wines other than port. There was a falling off in imports of vermouth mainly due to the disappearance of the Spanish substitute which enjoyed a certain sale, faute de mieux, during the war.

"Generally speaking, imports of liquors were greater than consumption and stocks in bond increased during the year. An exception is afforded by rum, of which 98,615 gallons were bonded, while 48,090 gallons potable spirit together with 81,707 gallons denatured before clearance, were removed from the warehouses."

The Customs Department have kindly furnished the following statistics of imports and issues on payment of duty of potable foreign spirits at the Calcutta Custom House :—

Year.	Imported (L. P. gallons).				Issued on payment of duty (L. P. gallons).

WINES AND SPIRITS (OTHER THAN MEDICATED WINES AND COMMERCIAL SPIRITS) AND BEER.

36. Licenses and Revenue.—The total number of licenses issued for wholesale and retail vend was 727 against 597 in the preceding year. There were increases under heads "Wholesale" (2), "Retail-off" (5), "Dining cars" (1), "Steamer" (11), "Temporary bars" (85), "Canteen" (3) and "Late Closing" (25) and decreases under heads, "Retail-on" (1) and "Hotel" (1). The increase was due mostly on account of grant of temporary bar licenses for special occasions.

The total receipts from license fees amounted to Rs. 3,22,358 against Rs. 3,01,869 in the previous year.

The receipts from duty were Rs. 10,35,077 against Rs. 8,82,456 in the preceding year. The increase in the amount of duty realised in the year was due to larger issues of Indian-made rum and the raising of duty on potable foreign spirit with effect from 1st March 1921.

37. Rum and other potable Foreign liquors manufactured in India.—The following quantities of rum and other potable foreign liquors manufactured in India were issued during the year from distilleries and Excise warehouses in Bengal :—

Place of manufacture.	Issued on payment of full duty.	Issued at the concession rate of duty.	Issued duty free.
	L. P. gallons.	L. P. gallons.	L. P. gallons.
Rum—
Konnagore	1,370	40	...

Shahjahanpur	17,241	...	600
Brandy—
Russa	1,430	...	...

Konnagore rum was issued at the concession rate of duty to the Military Police of Assam and Asansol rum to the Lakhimpore Battalion.

Duty-free issues of rum were made to the Campbell Medical School, Mayo and Medical College Hospitals, Calcutta, and to the Government Lunatic Asylum, Berhampore.

38. Locally manufactured beer.—The two breweries licensed in the preceding year took out licenses also during the year under report, but only the brewery at Sonada manufactured beer during the year. Owing to the difficulty of obtaining barley, the brewery at St. Mary's Seminary, Kurseong, remained closed throughout the year, though a license was taken by the curator.

Duty was charged on 11,501 gallons against 54,436 gallons in the preceding year. The decrease in manufacture was due to smaller quantities being taken by the Military authorities. The Japanese beer, which was cheaper in price, also competed with the locally made beer to some extent.

Receipts from license fees and duty amounted to Rs. 3,400 against Rs. 15,476 in the previous year.

MEDICATED WINES AND RECTIFIED SPIRITS.

39. Licenses and revenue.—The number of licenses for the retail sale of medicated wines and rectified spirits were 158 and 34, respectively, against 138 and 31 in 1919-20. The revenue from license fees was Rs. 9,000 against Rs. 8,950 in the preceding year.

40. Manufacture and issue of rectified spirits.—Rectified spirits were manufactured in the distilleries at Asansol, Konnagore, Russa and Bahir-Mirzapur Road, Calcutta.

The following quantities of rectified spirits were issued during the year for medicinal, industrial and scientific purposes from distilleries and Excise warehouses in Bengal :—

Place of manufacture.	On payment of duty.	Duty-free.	For manufacture of tinctures and absolute alcohol in bonded laboratories.
	L. P. gallons.	L. P. gallons.	L. P. gallons.
Asansol	18,826	4,329	36,446
Konnagar	9,402	22	1,977
Russa	3,033	32	671
Bahir-Mirzapur Road ...	8,526	48	3,985

Besides the above, 4,993 L. P. gallons of rectified spirits were issued under bond from the Asansol distillery to the United Provinces.

Asansol spirit was issued duty-free to the Director, Zoological Survey of India, to the Medical Store-Keeper to Government, to the Officer in charge of the Mathematical Instrument Office, Calcutta, and to the Agricultural Chemist, Sabour; Konnagore spirit to hospitals and the Photo and Litho Office, Calcutta; Russa spirit to the Controller, Printing and Stamps, Calcutta, to the Agricultural Chemist and to the Fibre Expert, Dacca, and Bahir-Mirzapur spirit to the Calcutta Corporation and Charitable dispensaries.

Duty-free issues were also made through Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Messrs. B. K. Pal & Co., and Dr. K. C. Bose from the warehouses attached to their bonded laboratories, to charitable dispensaries in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Assam.

41. Manufacture of tinctures, etc., in Bonded Laboratories.—Four bonded laboratories manufactured tinctures, etc., during the year under report as in the previous year. Besides, a new bonded laboratory has been opened by the Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works since February 1921. Duty was paid on 7,784 proof gallons of spirit contained in tinctures and medicinal preparations issued from the four laboratories, whilst medicinal preparations containing 10,078 proof gallons of spirit were issued duty-free to charitable dispensaries in the various provinces.

SECTION IV.—Hemp drugs.

* * * * *

GANJA.

47. Retail Licenses.—The total number of licenses issued in the Presidency for the retail sale of ganja was 1,267 as compared with 1,263 in 1919-20.

* * * * * * *

48. Consumption of ganja.—The total quantity of ganja consumed in the Presidency amounted to 1,840 maunds 26 seers as compared with 2,052 maunds 6 seers in 1919-20, a decrease of 211 maunds 20 seers. Consumption decreased in eighteen districts and increased in nine. The decrease exceeded 10 per cent. in five districts, viz., Dacca, Noakhali, 24-Parganas, Midnapore and Khulna, and 20 per cent. in Mymensingh (108 maunds or 38·89), Darjeeling (4½ maunds or 34·71), Rangpur (30 maunds or 31·56), Jalpaiguri (11¾ maunds or 28·81), and Faridpur (12½ maunds or 22·67). Elsewhere in which a large decrease also occurred is Calcutta (23 maunds 28 seers). The fall in consumption was due to higher price and stricter control under the Bengal fixed-fee system.

The only district in which the increase exceeded 20 per cent. was Dinajpur (14¾ maunds or 25·86). The increase exceeded 3 maunds in Tippera (11 maunds 25 seers), Rajshahi (10 maunds 16 seers), Malda (7 maunds 22 seers), Bogra (6 maunds 21 seers) and Murshidabad (6 maunds 1 seer). Those districts were under the auction system during the year. The lower rate of retail price may, to some extent, be taken as the general cause of increase.

49. Total revenue.—The total receipts for the year amounted to Rs. 38,16,458 against Rs. 36,47,148 in 1919-20, an increase of Rs. 1,69,310. There was a fall of Rs. 79,511 in the receipts from duty, whilst receipts from license fees increased by Rs. 2,48,821.

50. Incidence of Taxation.—The incidence of license fees per seer of ganja consumed was Rs. 30 and that of duty Rs. 20. The total taxation was Rs. 50 per seer as compared with Rs. 43·9 in the previous year.

* * * * *

53. Cultivation and outturn of ganja at Naogaon in Rajshahi.—The number of applications to cultivate ganja received last season (1921) was 2,542 for an area of 3,958 bighas, as compared with 3,087 applications for an area of 6,511 bighas in the previous year. One thousand nine hundred and ninety-three licenses covering an area of 2,802 bighas 4 cottahs and 10 chittaks were granted, as compared with 2,207 licenses covering an area of 1,999 bighas 11 cottahs and 14 chittaks in 1919-20. The area actually cultivated with ganja was 2,700 bighas and 14 chittaks against 1,972 bighas 14 cottahs and 1 chittak in the preceding year. The area under cultivation, as usual, was strictly tested and, as a result, a very large number of cases of change of plots was detected. This irregularity arose out of a misconception on the part of the cultivators, who could not locate the plots licensed correctly. The prospects of the crop were not favourable from the beginning. Unusually heavy rainfall in September and October seriously damaged the seedlings. The floods which followed the rains both in September and October also caused much damage to them. The cultivators took the utmost care to make good the loss. Fresh nurseries were prepared and some portions of the ganja fields were retransplanted, and it was apprehended that the outturn of the crop would be less than the normal. The difficulties of the cultivators were not yet gone. In November a kind of caterpillar locally called "Tamakur poka" and red spider appeared in the ganja fields, but the damage by these pests was not appreciable. The outturn after all proved to be better than what had been anticipated being 2 maunds 21 seers 7 chittaks per bigha. The total quantity of ganja stored in the public golas amounted to 6,847 maunds 29 seers and 1 chittak as compared with 4,569 maunds 18 seers 2 chittak in the preceding season.

* * * * *

BHANG.

58. Licenses and revenue.—The number of retail licenses in the year under report was 261 against 249 in 1919-20. Four shops were opened in Mymensingh, three in Rangpur, two in the 24-Parganas, one each in Burdwan, Noakhali and Bogra, with the approval of the Advisory Committees. The total number of druggists' permits issued was 355 as compared with 358 in the preceding year. The total revenue from license fees and duty amounted to Rs. 1,77,635 as compared with Rs. 1,61,477 in 1919-20, an increase of Rs. 16,158.

59. Consumption.—An appreciable demand for bhang, as in the previous year, was chiefly confined to most of the Western Bengal districts. In Eastern Bengal, Dacca is the only district in which there was a considerable demand for the drug. In the other districts in the Province the consumption, as usual, was very small. The total consumption within the Presidency amounted to 780 maunds 3 seers against 724 maunds 19 seers in the previous year. The increase exceeded 5 maunds in Calcutta (32 maunds 16 seers), Burdwan (13 maunds 29 seers), 24-Parganas (6 maunds 19 seers), Hooghly (5 maunds 30 seers) and Midnapore (5 maunds 4 seers). The increase in Calcutta was partly due to the influx of up-country men in the town and partly to higher price of ganja. The Collector of Burdwan reports that the increase in that district was partly due to the Kavirajes having taken their supplies of the drug from the licensed shops. The increase in the other districts was also due to higher price of ganja.

Two maunds and twenty-five seers of duty-paid bhang were exported from Hooghly to French Chandernagore. Tippera supplied 8 seers to the adjoining state of Hill Tippera. Sixteen maunds and twenty seers of bhang were exported from Naogaon to Manbhum in Bihar and Orissa.

CHARAS.

60. Licenses and revenue.—Twenty-nine retail licenses were in force during the year, as in 1919-20. Four wholesale licenses were issued against three in the previous year, one in each of the districts of Birbhum and Dinajpur and two in Calcutta This year again, the wholesale dealer of Dinajpur did not import any charas from the Punjab. The total revenue amounted to Rs. 67,693 as compared with Rs. 78,039 in 1919-20, a decrease of Rs. 10,346.

61. Imports, exports and consumption.—The total quantity of charas imported into Bengal was 23 maunds 33 seers against 28 maunds 25 seers in the preceding year. The wholesale dealers of Calcutta and Birbhum imported the drug direct from the Punjab and supplied the retail vendors throughout the Presidency.

The total issues to retail shops in the Presidency amounted to 24 maunds 18 seers as compared with 28 maunds 32 seers in 1919-20, the excess of issues over the imports being met from the last year's balance. There was a noticeable fluctuation—a decrease of 3 maunds 15 seers in Calcutta, due to the strike on the North-Western Railway in the early part of the year under report, which cut off the supply of charas from the whole of Bengal for over two months.

Seven seers of charas were exported to Bihar and Orissa, as compared with 9 seers in the preceding year.

SECTION V.—Opium.

* * * * *

62. Restricted supply of opium.—Under this system the issue of Excise opium to retail shops is fixed according to the estimated local demand. All the shops in Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, the 24-Parganas, Calcutta, Khulna, Bakarganj, Faridpur, Chittagong, Noakhali, Tippera and Jalpaiguri and a certain number of shops in Burdwan, Nadia, Jessore, Darjeeling, Mymensingh, Murshidabad and Rajshahi continued to work under this system. It was extended to five more shops in Nadia during the year under review and though it was not found necessary to bring more areas under the operations of this system, the issues of opium continued to be regulated and were limited as far as possible to bona fide local consumption. The system has some inherent defects, and efforts will be made to remove these defects as early as possible.

63. License for retail sale.—The total number of licenses issued for the retail sale of excise opium was 835, as compared with 828 in the previous year. The increase was due to the opening of three new shops in the 24-Parganas and one each in Burdwan, Mymensingh, Tippera and Noakhali. All the new shops were opened with approval of the Advisory Committees concerned. No shop was abolished during the year under report.

64. Permits and license under the Opium and Morphia Rules.—The total number of permits and licenses was 1,164 as compared with 951 in 1919-20. The number includes 32 licenses to manufacturing chemists, 409 to dispensing chemists, 81 to Kabirajes and Hakims and 57 permits to permit-holders (total 579 for intoxicating drugs) and 38 licenses to dealers, 419 to chemists, 52 to persons approved under rules 21(1) and 21(2) of the Morphia Rules and 76 persons authorised under rule 22 of the same rules (total 585 for Morphia drugs).

65. Consumption.—The consumption of excise opium during the year was 1,065 maunds and 34 seers, as compared with 1,038 maunds and 5 seers in the previous year, showing an increase by 27 maunds and 29 seers or 2·67 per cent. The consumption increased in 17 districts and decreased in 9. The largest increases occurred in Bogra (60 seers or 20·8 per cent.), Tippera (41 seers or 15·2 per cent.), Dinajpur (91 seers or 14·2 per cent.), the 24-Parganas (418 seers or 8·2 per cent.), Bankura (54 seers or 7·4 per cent.), Pabna (17 seers or 6·3 per cent.). Howrah (90 seers or 5·9 per cent.), Midnapore (195 seers or 5·4 per cent.), Hooghly (117 seers or 5·4 per cent.), Malda (61 seers or 5·4 per cent.) and Rajshahi (25 seers or 5·3 per cent.). The increase in Calcutta was by 492 seers, but the percentage of increase was small. In Bogra and Pabna the increase was due to increased sales in the shops situated close to the borders of the Rangpur district where retail prices were high since the introduction of the fixed-fee system. The increase in Tippera was due to increased allotments to some shops, in Dinajpur to the improved condition of the consumers and to better management of shops, in the 24-Parganas to the opening of three new shops and to increased allotments to some shops, in Bankura to gradual reversion to normal conditions after the famine year of 1915-16, in Howrah and Hooghly to a certain class of consumers taking their supplies from local shops instead of from Calcutta as previously on account of restriction of sales at the latter place, in Midnapore to the prevention of import of opium from Balasore and Singbhum. The noticeable decrease occurred in Rangpur (215 seers or 20·8 per cent.), in Nadia (109 seers or 12·6 per cent.), and in Darjeeling (28 seers or 10·9 per cent.), and it has been ascribed to the following causes :—in Rangpur to high retail prices of the drug and the rise in prices of the necessaries of life, in Nadia and Darjeeling to the extension of the restrictive system of supply to some shops. In no other district did the decrease exceed 10 per cent.

66. Total receipts.—The total receipts amounted to Rs. 34,00,913 as compared with Rs. 32,48,820 in 1919-20. There was an increase of Rs. 1,52,093 or 4·6 per cent., which occurred mostly under the head of "License fees."

67. Morphia and Opium pills.—The use of morphia as a substitute for opium does not appear to have been prevalent in any of the districts. No sale of opium pills was reported during the year under report.

SECTION VI.—Cocaine.

70. Licenses and revenue.—Three hundred and twenty-one licenses were issued during the year to chemists and druggists for the sale of cocaine, as compared with 287 in 1919-20. Forty-three permits for the possession of cocaine were issued free to managers of hospitals or dispensaries not under Government supervision, viz., sixteen licenses for tea gardens in Jalpaiguri, eight for charitable dispensaries in Burdwan, four in Tippera, three in the 24-Parganas, two in each of the districts of Midnapore, Calcutta, Nadia and Bakarganj and one each in Khulna, Faridpur, Noakhali and Rajshahi. Twenty-one permits were issued to qualified medical practitioners and dentists in Calcutta, four in Chittagong, three in each of the districts of Burdwan and Dinajpur, two in Faridpur and one each in Midnapore, Murshidabad, Jessore, Noakhali and Tippera for possession and use of the drug in the course of their practice.

71. Preventive operations and illicit transactions.—Italian cocaine was seized in one case in a large quantity on board an Italian steamer. German and Austrian stuff was not seized in many cases. The abuse of cocaine continues in the Calcutta district and in the neighbouring parts of the 24-Parganas and Howrah and in the districts of Burdwan and Hooghly. A cocaine case was detected each in Midnapore and Faridpur. The number of persons convicted of illicit possession, sale or smuggling of cocaine decreased from 275 to 248. In Calcutta the number was 215 as compared with 244 in 1919-20. An account of some important cocaine cases will be found in Section VII of this report.

The total quantity of cocaine seized in Bengal during the year was 18 lbs. 6 ounces and 106 grains as compared with 33 lbs. 3 ounces and 29$\frac{7}{8}$ grains in 1919-20. Only 36 ounces and 397$\frac{1}{2}$ grains were seized outside the Calcutta district, and of this quantity 35 ounces 319 grains were seized in the 24-Parganas. In Calcutta 130 ounces and 156$\frac{1}{2}$ grains were seized by Excise officers, 120 ounces by Customs officers, 6 ounces and 419 grains by Police officers and 3 grains by other officers.

SECTION VII—Offences against the Excise and Opium Laws.

73. Prosecutions and conviction.— * * *
* * * * *

The total number of persons arrested during the year was 6,183 as compared with 6,651 in the previous year. Of these, 5,764 were convicted during the year against 6,038 in 1919-20. The number of arrests increased in 10 and decreased in 16, out of the 27 districts in the Presidency of Bengal. The increase was most marked in Bankura (246), Birbhum (222) and Hooghly (216). In Bankura the increase was due to a better mohua crop. Almost all of the offenders in this district came from the aboriginal tribes. In Birbhum it was due to the illicit manufacture of pachwai for private consumption, whilst the increase in Hooghly was due to the prevalence of the manufacture of pachwai by the Santals in the Sadar subdivision and of tari in the tree-tax areas (Sadar and Serampore subdivisions). On the other hand the decrease was largest in Midnapore (421), Calcutta (196), Rajshahi (90), the 24-Parganas (89), Mymensingh (58), Rangpur (57) and Murshidabad (50). The decrease in Midnapore is said to have been due to paucity of officers owing to frequent casualties among the preventive staff. In Calcutta it was due to the reduction in the number of petty cases. In Rajshahi the decrease was due to (1) better prevention of smuggling of ganja from the ganja Mahal, (2) arrest and conviction of several informers who were principal smugglers, and (3) the detection of large number of cases in the previous year. In Mymensingh the deterrent effect of the previous year's punishments made the offenders to be on their alert which resulted in the fall of arrest. The decrease in Rangpur was due to the fact that importation of any quantity of excisable article even worth one pice, from Cooch Behar into British territory, was treated as offence during 1919-20. This rule was ultimately modified under which bona fide travellers were allowed to bring with them one tola of every kind of drug for personal consumption and also, partially, to the detection of a large number of petty bhang cases in the preceding year.

74. Classification of offences.—Four hundred and eighty-two persons were arrested for "illicit distillation" and 144 for possession or sale of "illicit country spirit" as compared with 453 and 378, respectively, in the preceding year. The chief increases under these two heads taken together occurred in Bankura (66) and Chittagong (11) and the chief decreases in Midnapore (140), Hooghly (56), the 24-Parganas (45), Calcutta (13), Howrah (12) and Darjeeling (11). In the Barrackpore subdivision of the 24-Parganas, the Excise Superintendent detected an important case of illicit distillation of country spirit with a large amount of materials and implements within a very short distance of the Tittaghar country spirit shop. The accused was distilling liquor in collusion with the local country spirit vendor to the loss of Government revenue. The accused was sentenced to two months' rigorous imprisonment. In another case in that district one of the accused was a member of the Panchayet of an Union and was an influential man and had a gun license. He was distilling liquor in order to put his enemy into trouble by introducing the liquor into his house. He was sentenced to a fine of Rs. 300 in default three months' rigorous imprisonment. In Mymensingh the people, who resorted to illicit distillation, were invariably the hill tribes. Their implements were primitive and the liquor was used for domestic consumption as well as for sale. A case of illicit distillation of "Mrita Sanjibani Sudha" was detected in Faridpur. A priest of a Raj family at Natore, in Rajshahi, was prosecuted and sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 100 for illicit possession of materials and apparatus intended for illicit manufacture of country spirit. In Jalpaiguri almost all the illicit distillation cases were detected in the tea gardens and the offenders were generally Paharias and Bhutias. The tea garden coolies of Darjeeling were also the offenders in the majority of illicit distillation cases. Illicit distillation prevails to some extent in parts of Sadar and Pirojpur subdivisions as well as in the Sunderbans area of the Backerganj district.

In Santipur town in Nadia district a few cases of transport of illicitly distilled liquor for sale amongst prostitutes and in the grocers' shops were detected during the year of report

The number of arrests under the head "unlicensed sale of duty paid country spirit" fell from 132 to 115. The decrease occurred principally in the 24-Parganas and Calcutta due to the introduction of more honest and better class of vendors.

The arrests for "illicit possession of duty paid country spirit" decreased from 48 to 29. The decrease is due to ordinary fluctuation.

The prosecution of illicit import, export or transport of country liquor increased from 87 to 139 or by 52. Hooghly is credited with the whole of the increase. The offence has been well controlled by the special staff. In Darjeeling the smuggling of Nepal and Sikkim liquor was chiefly carried on at night through the agency of women.

The number of arrests for "Illicit sale of foreign liquor" rose from 56 to 88 or by 32, of which Calcutta alone contributed 25.

There were 1,524 arrests under the head tari against 1,609 in the previous year. The decrease has no special significance. This crime is common amongst the lower classes (especially the up-country people) in the Burdwan and Presidency divisions.

The arrests under the head "Illicit manufacture, possession or sale of pachwai," rose from 1,634 to 1,940 or by 306 persons. The increase was most marked in Birbhum (214), Bankura (169), Hooghly (130) and the 24-Parganas (56), whilst the decrease was most marked in Midnapore (205) and Burdwan (28). The increase in Birbhum, Bankura and Hooghly and the decrease in Midnapore have already been explained in paragraph 73 above.

Three persons were arrested for "Illicit cultivation of poppy" against 10 in the preceding year. Taking the figures under the 2 heads "Illicit opium" and "Treasury opium" together, the number of arrests decreased from 524 to 372 or by 152. The arrests decreased by 96 in Calcutta, 48 in Midnapore, 12 in the 24-Parganas and 11 in Nadia. The total quantity of opium seized in Bengal amounted to 68 maunds 6 seers of which 43 maunds 34 seers were seized in Calcutta alone. Thirteen maunds one seer were seized by the special staff at different railway stations. The Customs Officers made 32 seizures amounting in all to 3 maunds 21 seers. Thirty-three maunds 8 seers were seized by the Excise Officers in Calcutta as compared with 27 maunds 9 seers in the preceding year. Two maunds 34 seers have been seized by each of the Calcutta Police and the Howrah Railway Police. Some important arrests were made by the Calcutta Excise and the special staff. Mention may, however, be made of four important cases detected by the Calcutta Excise staff. In the first case, the Superintendent of Excise, Preventive Branch, arrested one Golam Hosain alias Bishambar Prosad, a notorious opium and cocaine smuggler, with 44½ seers of opium. He was arrested in the present case just four months after his release from Naini Jail for a similar offence for which he was arrested in Allahabad in November 1919. He was also convicted under section 467, Indian Penal Code, and sentenced to undergo three years' rigorous imprisonment at Burdwan in 1915. He wanted to hide his identity and his previous convictions and was therefore dressed as a Mubammadan. He gave his name as Golam Hosain but his real name and previous convictions were traced out with his finger prints and careful enquiry. He was for a long time the right-hand man of the notorious Calcutta smuggler Surjee Prosad. He was convicted and sentenced to undergo one year's rigorous imprisonment. The second case was detected by an Inspector of Excise. One Jahandar Khan, a landholder and an influential man of terror of Ghazipore, who was dealing in contraband opium illicitly obtained from the local cultivators some of whom were his tenants, was arrested when he was trying to dispose of 66 seers of crude opium to a bogus mahajan set up by the Inspector. He was convicted and sentenced to nine months' rigorous imprisonment and to a fine of Rs. 1,000. The accused appealed before the Sessions Judge and the Allahabad High Court, where the Lower Court judgment was upheld and the appeal dismissed. In the 3rd case, one Baijnath Missir, a durwan of a notorious Chinese smuggler Seo Chang Hai with 5 aliases, was arrested by an Excise Inspector for possession of 20 seers of opium, which the Chinaman used to keep away from his house through his durwan for fear of detection. The accused was convicted and sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment. In consequence of the detection of this case, the house of the Chinese smuggler Seo Chang Hai was searched and incriminating papers and documents were seized. Three registered post parcels sent from Calcutta to Rangoon were about this time seized in Rangoon. Each of the parcels was found to contain 6 seers of opium. The names of the addressees were found to be fictitious. The Rangoon Excise authorities wrote to Calcutta Excise to trace out the sender of those parcels. The Superintendent of Excise after carefully going through the papers already seized, was of opinion that Seo Chang Hai was sending opium in registered post parcels to Rangoon in fictitious names. When the coverings of the parcels were received, the Excise Superintendent compared the handwriting on the labels of those parcels with the handwriting in note books and other papers seized in the house of the suspect and found them agree. A postal receipt of one of the parcels was also found in the house of the offender Seo Chang Hai. A case was accordingly started against the man. He was also subsequently arrested by the Rangoon Excise at Rangoon on the identification of the Calcutta Excise Superintendent and his one of the Inspectors, who went there for the purpose for further investigation of the case. The accused was sentenced to undergo six months' rigorous imprisonment by the 3rd Presidency Magistrate, Calcutta. In the 4th case, one Latifuddin and 6 other Peshwaries (2 belonged to Rai Bareilli district, 3 to Shajahanpur, 1 each to Meerut and Muradabad) were arrested at Kharagpur Railway station by the Calcutta Excise Preventive staff, with the assistance of the Government Railway Police and the Special Excise staff, Kharagpur, on their way to Calcutta from Nagpur. These people were dressed as sepoys in full military uniforms with one Gore Khan as their Havildar. They took a very threatening attitude at the time of their arrest and one of them actually brought out a knife with a view to assault a Government Railway Police Sub-Inspector. The opium seized was about 4½ maunds in weight and was declared, on analysis, to be Udaipur State opium. All the accused were convicted and each was sentenced to undergo one year's rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs. 500, in default to 6 months' additional rigorous imprisonment, except Gore Khan, who was convicted only for conspiracy. They appealed before the Sessions Judge, Midnapore, who upheld the sentences.

The following are some of the important seizures of opium sent by railway parcels from the different provinces outside Bengal :—

(1) A parcel containing 20 seers of gola opium despatched from Sagaur to Howrah.

(2) One parcel containing 18 seers of Malwa opium sent from Agra Cantonment to Howrah.

(3) One steel trunk booked from Munda Road to Lillooah was found to contain 19 seers of opium.

(4) One parcel from Kishori Pathan, Bombay Baroda and Central India Railway, to Tinpahar was found to contain 20 seers of gola opium.

(5) Two parcels from Delhi to Howrah said to contain fruits were found to contain 50 seers of opium.

(6) One parcel said to contain machinery booked from Delhi to Howrah was found to contain about 18 seers of opium.

(7) One parcel from Coconada Port to Calcutta Booking Office was found to contain 20 seers of Treasury opium.

(8) Five crates said to contain glasswares booked from Nizamuddin near Delhi to Howrah were found to contain 73 seers of opium.

(9) Four crates said to contain lanterns booked from Delhi to Howrah were found to contain 45 seers of opium.

(10) One parcel from Jaynagar (Bengal and North-Western Railway) to Chakdah Railway station found to contain 13 seers of Treasury opium.

Twenty-two postal parcels containing about 64 seers of opium were seized in Calcutta during the year of report with fictitious names. Such parcels are reported to have been addressed to fictitious names and addresses, the delivery of which was made with the connivance of the delivery peons. These parcels came 7 from Rampore State, 3 from Jaypur State, 2 from Delhi and 1 each from Tanuku (Madras), Muzaffarpur, Mamtaul, Darbhanga, Amritsar, Etwa, Katamunda (Nepal), Moradabad and Meerut.

Some of the methods adopted by the smugglers to carry on their nefarious trade were the employment of carriers dressed as sepoys or khansamas and of Marwaries (men and women) and Anglo-Indians (men and women) travelling in 1st and 2nd class compartments. Opium was smuggled to a considerable extent in railway and postal parcels, in pillows, in beddings, in oil-cloth bags tied round waists of the railway passengers, in tea chests, in vegetable and fruit baskets, in oxygen cylinders, in bundles of peacock feathers, in felts, in crates said to contain glasswares, etc., in Ceylonese cocoanuts, in the sides of the boxes made hollow and in false-bottomed boxes.

There were 290 arrests for "Illicit possession or sale of modak or chandu" against 339 in the preceding year. The chief decreases occurred in Midnapore (23) and the 24-Parganas (20).

The arrests for "Illicit cultivation or collection of ganja or bhang" increased from 70 to 87, of which Pabna alone is responsible for 14. In Dacca, specially in the Manikganj subdivision, there is much spontaneous growth of bhang and it is not possible to exterminate it. The illicit possession of ganja and wild bhang is one of the common offences in the district of Dinajpur. In Bogra, one Baula Majhi was arrested for unlicensed cultivation of 6 ganja plants and for possession of certain quantity of non-duty-paid bhang. He was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 15. In the Sadar subdivision of Rajshahi a case of illicit cultivation of ganja plants was detected which ended in conviction of the accused. Seven cases were detected in the Naogaon subdivision of that district for illicit possession of green ganja against 6 in the previous year. The total quantity of green ganja seized was 1 maund 4 seers 10 chittaks as compared with 2 maunds 18 seers 14 chittaks in the preceding year. A few cases of special importance are given below:—

(1) One Dilban Sonar, who used to work as an informer from a long time, was suspected of smuggling of ganja. An Excise Sub-Inspector succeeded in purchasing 52 tolas of ganja from him. He was prosecuted and sentenced to three months' rigorous imprisonment.

(2) One Jiar Ali Sheik was an informer but was also one of the leaders of a gang of smugglers. The Excise Sub-Inspector of the circle made arrangement through a bogus purchaser to purchase ganja from him and was successful. The man had one tola, while his accomplice had 13½ tolas of ganja in his person. He was sent up and sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for six months.

(3) One Shona Sardar, who was a ganja cultivator, was arrested while making over 17 seers of green ganja plants through his accomplice Momin Sardar to a bogus purchaser arranged by an Excise Sub-Inspector. They were prosecuted and sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for two months each.

(4) One Golap Singh was arrested by an Excise Sub-Inspector, while attempting to carry 32 seers of green ganja plants with his companion Jangli Buna. The companion could not be arrested on the spot. The green ganja was cut in the previous night and was left in the ditches near by as it became dawn. He was sentenced to a fine of Rs. 200. The case against his companion is pending.

(5) One Bhola Mondol, who was an informer, was also a notorious smuggler and leader of a gang of smugglers. He manufactured ganja in a barley field and attempts were made to arrest him at the time of manufacture, but they failed. Subsequently when the ganja was removed to his house, a search was made there and 268½ tolas of ganja were found in different places within his house. He was prosecuted and sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for 6 months.

The arrests for "Unlicensed sale of hemp drugs" decreased from 277 to 207 or by 70.

The prosecutions under the head "Illicit sale or possession of cocaine" were 277 as compared with 324 in 1919-20. Calcutta was principally responsible for the crime where alone 238 persons out of 277 were arrested for the offence. The 24-Parganas and Hooghly come next with 23 and 8, respectively. Nearly all the important cases occurred in Calcutta. The offenders in most of the important cases in Calcutta were either Chinamen or Japanese. The former, as in the previous year, were also extensively engaged in the contraband trade of opium. In the 24-Parganas, the majority of the cases took place in the Barrackpore subdivision where the drug used to be transported from Calcutta for sale in the mill areas. The trade being a lucrative one attracted many people. Big smugglers generally remained behind the scene to avoid arrest. A few important cases are mentioned below :—

A Japanese member of the crew of SS. "Tanda" was arrested in Calcutta while he was trying to dispose of 25 ounces of cocaine. He was sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for one year. One Cassare Rosaroo, the Chief Officer of the Italian Steamer "Ansaldo VI," was arrested in his own cabin for selling 33 ounces of cocaine to an Inspector of Excise, who posed himself as a mahajan. The case is the first of its kind and both the Inspector and his Petty Officer showed great skill, pluck and discretion in the detection of the case. They ran a risk of their lives when they entered the cabin of the Chief Officer with Rs. 1,800 to buy the cocaine as there were about 100 Italians round about the cabin and a word from the Chief Officer, if he had discovered their identity before his arrest, would have endangered their safety. The Calcutta Excise Staff were assisted very much by the Customs Preventive Officers in the arrest of the offender in this case. The accused was, however, leniently dealt with by the trying Magistrate and was sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 1,000 only as the steamer could not leave the port without her Chief Officer. One Amulya Charan Das was arrested for possession of 12 ounces of cocaine near the Pattipuker Railway station in the 24-Parganas. The stuff was brought from Calcutta, and intended for sale in the mill area of the Barrackpore subdivision. The accused was dressed as a bhadralok and was travelling in a second class carriage when he was stopped. The cocaine was found tied to his waist. He was sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for four months. In another case in the same district one Gopal Chandra De was arrested at Belghuria with 10½ ounces of cocaine. The stuff was transported from a Calcutta smuggler and was intended for sale in the mill area of the Barrackpore subdivision. The accused came by rail from Sealdah and was proceeding to Jagatdal when he was induced by the informer to get down at Belghuria. A punishment of 12 stripes was inflicted on the accused by the Subdivisional Officer of Barrakpore.

Second Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal, 1921-22.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1919-20, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent. of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to total wheat acreage in (a) British India and (b) in the territory now reported on has in the five years ending 1919-20 averaged (a) 42·3 and (b) 16·0 per cent., respectively.]

Character of the season.—As reported in the first forecast, the rainfall in September and October, though generally defective, was adequate for the preparatory tillage and for the sowings of the crop in normal time. Since then, prolonged drought and consequent lack of soil moisture has greatly affected the germination and growth of the crop in most districts, and the present condition of the crop, though a little improved in some northern districts by the scattered rain in January, is unfavourable on the whole.

Area sown.—According to the estimates of the District Officers, the total area sown amounts to 124,500 acres this year against 116,200 and 116,900 acres reported, respectively, in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—From the District Officers' estimates, the provincial outturn works out at 69 per cent. of the normal this year against 81 and 86 per cent. reported, respectively, in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Owing to the entire cessation of rain all through, the the growth of the plants has been retarded and the outturn is expected to fall much below the normal.
Murshidabad ...	69,300	22,300	21,600	92	67	October to November. Normal.	The decrease in area is due to want of rainfall at sowing time. The weather has not been favourable. Continued drought has stunted the growth of the crop.
Jessore ...	2,300	800	900	75	50	October. Normal ...	The weather has not been favourable and the growth of the crop not good. Much damage has been done by drought.
Burdwan ...	2,000*	2,000*	2,300	75	67	Middle of October. Normal.	The increase in area is reported from the Asansol subdivision. The weather has not been favourable and the outturn is expected to be below the normal.
Birbhum ...	4,100	3,000	3,100	92	50	Middle of November. Normal.	The weather has not been favourable. The decrease in outturn is due to insufficient rainfall.

Midnapore ...	900	800	800	83	75	Ditto ...	The weather has not been favourable. The fall in outturn is due to drought.
Hooghly ...	2,400	1,700*	1,700*	67	67	Beginning of November. Late.	The weather has not been favourable. The outturn is expected to be much below the normal owing to absence of rain.
Rajshahi ...	18,600	8,300	9,300	100	83	November. Normal ...	The increase in area is due to increase in prices. The weather was unfavourable at the beginning owing to want of rain. But the recent rain has improved the condition of the crop. The outturn is expected to be below the normal for want of rain which has caused damage to the extent of two annas in the Nator subdivision.
Dinajpur ...	1,400	1,300	1,300	61	77	By the end of October. Normal.	The condition of the crop has improved by the recent rain. The outturn is expected to fall below the normal owing to unfavourable weather.
Jalpaiguri ...	800	600	500	92	90	First week of November. Normal.	The decrease in area is due to unfavourable weather at sowing time. Since the submission of the first forecast, the weather was favourable in Alipur subdivision but unfavourable in the Chaklajat estates in Sadar subdivision. The decrease in outturn is due to want of occasional showers.
Darjeeling ...	4,500	2,500	2,500	83	92	Last week of September. Normal.	The weather has been fairly favourable.
Rangpur ...	3,000	3,400*	3,400*	100	100	Beginning of November. Normal.	The weather has been favourable and a normal outturn is expected.
Bogra ...	100	300	300	80	80	Middle of November. Normal.	The weather was not favourable since the submission of the first forecast, but the recent rains have freshened the crop and have been beneficial to its growth.
Pabna ...	16,000	7,000	6,600	67	67	Ditto ...	The decrease in area is due to indifference of cultivators to grow this crop. The weather was favourable for cultivation but continued drought since the sowing time has retarded the growth of the crop to some extent. About two-thirds of the crop have been damaged by drought.
Malda ...	60,000	40,000	48,000	100	75	End of October. Normal.	The decrease in area compared with the first forecast is due to continued drought after sowing and to revision of estimates. Continued drought has retarded the growth of the crop to some extent but the recent rain has somewhat improved the condition. Some damage has been caused by drought. The outturn is anticipated to fall below the normal for want of rain.
Dacca ...	4,100	4,200	3,500	65	62	Middle of November. Normal.	Want of timely rain has affected the growth of the crop and has caused some damage. The outturn is anticipated to fall much below the normal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Second Forecast of the Spring Oilseed Crops of Bengal, 1921-22.

[NOTE. On an average of the five years ending 1919-20, the area under linseed in Bengal has represented some 5·3 per cent. and that under rape and mustard 19·0 per cent. of the total area under these crops British India.]

Character of the season.—As reported in the first forecast, the rainfall at the beginning, though defective, was adequate for the preparatory operations throughout the Presidency except in parts of West Bengal. Since then, with the exception of scattered rain in January, which was too late and proved insufficient, the weather has been dry and the consequent lack of soil moisture has adversely affected the crops specially in the western districts. As a whole, therefore, the season may be regarded as only fair for these crops this year.

Area sown.—Oilseeds are grown chiefly in the Rajshahi, Dacca and Presidency Divisions. In the other two divisions the cultivation is small. The total area under these crops (excepting sesamum for which separate forecasts are issued) is returned at 1,066,400 acres this year as against 1,037,500 acres and 1,035,800 acres, respectively, in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year. The decrease in area compared with the first forecast is due mainly to revision of Mymensingh figures on the basis of settlement records.

Outturn.—According to the estimates of the District Officers, the Provincial outturn of the different oilseed crops works out at 74 per cent. of the normal against 76 and 77 per cent., respectively, in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Delhi, the 2nd March 1922.

RESOLUTION.

On the 26th September 1921, the Legislative Assembly adopted the following resolution :—

"This Assembly recommends to the Governor General in Council that the draft Convention for establishing facilities for finding employment for seamen adopted by the General Conference of the International Labour Organisation of the League of Nations convened at Genoa on the 15th day of June 1920, should not be ratified, but that an examination should be undertaken, without delay, of the methods of recruitment of seamen at the different ports in India in order that it may be definitely ascertained whether abuses exist and whether those abuses are susceptible of remedy."

A similar resolution was adopted by the Council of State on the 27th September 1921.

A large number of witnesses were examined in each place, and investigations were made in the Shipping Offices, on the ships, and in the seamen's boarding houses.

3. The Government of India have now decided to appoint a Committee which will include two members of the Legislature in addition to the five gentlemen who have taken part in the preliminary enquiry. RE-ORGANISATION OF THE SERVICES BELOW THE BENGAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICE.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Education.

CALCUTTA, THE 3RD MARCH 1922.

RESOLUTION—No. 464Edn.

READ—

(1) The report of the Committee appointed to consider the question of the re-organisation of the Educational services below the Bengal Educational Service.

(2) A letter No. 687, dated the 6th September 1920, from the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, on the subject of strengthening the district inspectorate.

By Government Resolution No. 872T.-Edn., dated the 9th October 1920, a Committee, consisting of members noted in the margin, was appointed to examine and report upon the present pay and prospects of officers of the Education Department below the Provincial Educational Service (now called the Bengal Educational Service) and to recommend such changes of organisation as they considered desirable, with special reference to the question whether the present graded system should be retained or whether a time-scale of pay should be introduced.

Mr. W. C. Wordsworth, Principal, Presidency College ... ... President.
Mr. J. W. Gunn, Officiating Director of Public Instruction ... ...
The Hon'ble Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhury ... ...
The Hon'ble Khan Sahib Aman Ali ... Members.
Babu Heramba Chandra Maitra, Principal, City College ... ...
Babu Kausik Nath Bhattacharji, Lecturer, Rajshahi College ... ...
Rai Surendra Nath Sinha Bahadur, Officiating Assistant Director of Public Instruction ... ... Member and Secretary.

2. The Committee recommended the introduction of time-scale-pay in place of the present graded system and suggested various rates of pay, and for this purpose they divided the officers concerned into these four categories according to the nature of their work :—

I. Teaching.
II. Inspecting.
III. Ministerial.
IV. Miscellaneous.

In coming to the conclusions contained in this resolution the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) have generally followed these recommendations.

3. The present resolution covers the officers included in categories I and II. The cases of officers included in categories III and IV are being considered separately, and orders will, it is hoped, be issued shortly. The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) recognise that the decision to deal first with the officers in categories I and II will cause disappointment among officers of the third and fourth categories, but feel that the comparatively small number of officers concerned and the relief already given to the latter in the shape of ad-interim allowances justify the prior consideration of the case of teachers and inspecting officers who do not receive such relief.

4. The question of strengthening the district inspectorate has long been under the consideration of the Local Government. Proposals were submitted to the Government of India in 1918, but were held up for lack of funds. The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) have decided to take this opportunity of effecting a long-desired change. Each district will henceforth be under the charge of a District Inspector who will be a member of the Bengal Educational Service, and the present arrangements according to which certain District Deputy Inspectors hold special charge of subdivisions will cease. Each of the 14 Assistant Inspectors (excluding the Special Assistant Inspectors for Muhammadan Education), who are already members of the Bengal Educational Service, will be placed in charge of a district. Fourteen of the existing 28 District Deputy Inspectors of Schools will be promoted to the Bengal Educational Service and be placed in charge of the remaining 14 districts. These 28 officers will in future be designated District Inspectors. They will generally carry out all duties now performed by District Deputy Inspectors, e.g., will supervise primary education in the districts, advise and assist the District Boards, and also such other duties as may be required of them by the Divisional Inspectors or the Director of Public Instruction.

5. The charge of subdivisions will be entrusted to Subdivisional Inspectors. There will be 61 such officers for the present, including 14 of the present District Deputy Inspectors.

6. The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) are now pleased to issue the following orders :—

(a) The 28 districts will each be placed under the supervision of a District Inspector. These will be (i) 14 Assistant Inspectors of Schools (excluding those for Muhammadan Education) who are already in the Bengal Educational Service, (ii) 14 of the existing District Deputy Inspectors of Schools, who will be promoted to the Bengal Educational Service.

(b) Subdivisions will be placed under the supervision of Subdivisional Inspectors subordinate to District Inspectors. There will be 61 such officers on the scale of pay Rs. 150—10—250.

(c) Fifty-four officers engaged in teaching work, viz., assistant head masters and assistant head mistresses of high and normal schools, senior grade Laboratory Assistants in colleges, etc., will be placed on the scale of Rs. 150—10—250.

(m) the re-organisation will take effect from 1st September 1921.

(n) the concession of duty allowances granted to Assistant Head Masters and Assistant Head Mistresses of High Schools and Normal Schools and heads of Middle Schools (including the Junior Madrasah at Rajshahi) will be entirely withdrawn from that date.

7. Officers will be brought on to these scales in accordance with the following principles :—

(i) Officers promoted to the 35 posts now created in the Bengal Educational Service, will draw the pay of the stage next above their present pay. Officers whose present pay is less than the minimum of the Bengal Educational Service will draw that minimum.

(ii) Other officers will draw the pay at a stage of the new scale applicable to them next above the stage that is nearest to one and one-third times their present pay, or if two stages are equidistant next above the higher stage subject to the condition that no officer shall draw less than the minimum of the scale in which he is placed or more than the maximum. An officer whose present pay exceeds the maximum of the scale in which he is placed will draw that maximum and a personal allowance equal to the excess.

Example :—

An officer going into the scale of Rs. 75—5—150—5—200.

If his present pay is Rs. 50 will draw Rs. 75.

Ditto is „ 100 „ „ 140.

Ditto is „ 125 „ „ 170

Ditto is „ 250 „ „ 200 plus a personal allowance of Rs 50.

Present pay is for this purpose defined as the rate of pay drawn for 31st August 1921, or in the case of officers on long leave or deputation on 1st September 1921 the pay of their substantive posts on 31st August 1921. No officer will be required to refund any sum which for the period between 1st September 1921 and the end of February 1922 he has drawn correctly under the existing rules as acting allowances.

(iii) The holders of former temporary posts which by this resolution now become permanent posts will be treated in the same way as the holders of permanent posts and in particular the pay of the temporary posts will be the substantive pay for the purpose mentioned in the latter part of paragraph 7 (ii).

(iv) Any officer appointed on or subsequent to 1st September 1921 will draw the minimum of the scale in which he is placed if he was appointed on a pay not exceeding the minimum of the scale ; otherwise the stage of the time-scale next above the rate of pay on which he was appointed.

8. The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) are pleased to authorise the Director of Public Instruction to publish nominal rolls showing the names of the posts and the holders of them falling into the various classes above. Local officers will then draw bills according to the principles of this resolution and Treasury Officers have been instructed to meet such bills. Local officers will attach to the bills submitted for payment a statement showing the rate of pay drawn by each man for the 31st August 1921 and the rates of pay claimed for every succeeding month. Only the officer empowered to make an appointment may enable the holder of this appointment to pass beyond the efficiency bar, but all drawing officers may pass provisional orders in such cases and the Treasury Officer will pass the bills. Such provisional orders must be submitted to the appointing authority for confirmation and such confirmatory orders received should be attached to future bills.

9. The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) desire to express their thanks to Mr. Wordsworth and the other members of the Committee for the successful manner in which they have dealt with so complex a matter.

ORDER.—Ordered that the Resolution be communicated (1) to the Finance Department of this Government, for information and communication to the Accountant-General, Bengal ; (2) to the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, for information and necessary action.

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

By order of the Government of Bengal.

(Ministry of Education),

S. W. GOODE,

NEW BRIDGE BETWEEN CALCUTTA AND HOWRAH.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF ENGINEERS.

TERMS OF REFERENCE.

No. 3541 Marine, dated Calcutta, the 4th November 1921.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of Bengal, Marine Department.

In October 1920, public bodies and representative associations in Calcutta were consulted on the various proposals that have been made for a new bridge over the Hooghly at Howrah with special reference to the type of bridge which should be adopted. In the discussions which ensued a new point of great importance was raised as to the necessity of providing an opening span permitting the passage of ocean-going steamers. It was suggested that in modern conditions, it is unnecessary for traffic purposes for ocean-going steamers to proceed above the bridge and that the requirements of the port would be met by a bridge with a fixed headway permitting the passage of inland craft.

2. As this point appeared to have a material bearing on several of the problems arising out of the question of the type of bridge to be adopted, the Governor in Council decided that it was necessary to undertake its investigation. He has ascertained that there is no objection on the part of the naval authorities to the river above the bridge being closed to ocean-going steamers, while a representative committee, which was appointed to examine the manner in which local interests would be affected by the proposal, has reported that as a matter of fact no ocean-going steamers now proceed above the bridge except for purposes of repair, and that the only interests which would be adversely affected by the closing of the upper reaches of the Hooghly to ocean-going steamers are those of the owners and lessees of certain docks above the present bridge which are now used for repair purposes. Arrangements could, however, be made for the repair of such vessels to be carried out at docks below the bridge, and the committee have come to the conclusion that it is not necessary for the work of the port that ocean-going steamers should continue to proceed above the bridge and that it would suffice to have a bridge with a fixed headway permitting the passage of inland craft.

3. The Governor in Council has no hesitation in accepting the view of the committee that an opening span is not essential for the work of the port, and he is of opinion that the question of the new Howrah bridge has now reached a stage at which it should be possible for Government to come to a final decision as to the type of bridge to be adopted and proceed with its construction as soon as the necessary financial and other arrangements can be made. The problems involved are, however, so complex, and the advice which His Excellency in Council has received is so conflicting, that he thinks it desirable that the matter should be reviewed by a competent body before a final decision is taken, which will affect the vital interest of Calcutta for many years to come. He has accordingly decided to refer the whole question to an expert committee, and he trusts that with their advice and assistance he will be able to arrive at a conclusion which will commend itself to the judgment of the numerous and important interests concerned.

4. The complete discussions that have taken place on the subject will be laid before the committee, and it is only necessary here to summarise very briefly the main considerations involved. The three types of bridge which have been considered are—

(1) the single span arch,
(2) the pier or girder type,
(3) the floating type.

The advantages of the single span arch type are undoubted. Apart from æsthetic considerations, it would avoid the obstruction to navigation which is inevitably caused by a floating bridge and the risks of silting and changes in the course of the river which the sinking of piers would involve. On the other hand, the cost of a single span arch bridge would be high, and competent advisers take a very serious view of the risks which such a structure would run in the conditions prevalent on the banks of the Hooghly from abutment pressure, wind pressure and earthquakes. These risks would doubtless be lessened by the elimination of an opening span, but it is by no means certain that they would be reduced to an extent which would make it safe to disregard them. In the case of a pier or girder bridge, similar risks, except possibly earthquake risks, could probably be disregarded, but the Governor in Council is advised that before a bridge of this kind could be constructed, it would be necessary to sink trial piers in order to ascertain their probable effect on the river bed. These experiments would necessitate a delay of at least two or three years in starting the construction of the bridge, and even at the end of that period, the results might not be conclusive. The disadvantages of the floating type of bridge are well known. It permanently obstructs the river traffic and the necessity for periodical openings causes considerable inconvenience to road traffic also. This inconvenience and obstruction would not be greatly lessened, even if it were decided to close the river above the bridge to ocean-going steamers, since a floating bridge could not provide a permanent passage for inland craft without excessively steep approach gradients, and an opening span would therefore still be required. On the other hand, a bridge of the floating type would be more free from risks and could be constructed more cheaply and easily than any other type. If it is decided to retain a bridge of the floating type, it will be a matter for consideration whether there should be a single bridge with a wider roadway than that of the present bridge, or whether, as has been proposed by Sir Bradford Leslie who designed the present bridge, it would be preferable to replace it by a twin bridge.

5. These being the main considerations involved, the Governor in Council would like the advice of the committee in the first place on the question whether the risks attendant upon the single span arch type of bridge, even after the elimination of the opening span, are so serious as to make its adoption unduly hazardous. If it is decided that Government would not be justified in running the risks involved in the single span arch type, the committee should consider what other type they can recommend, having regard to the considerations stated above and to any other considerations which may present themselves. If, on the other hand, the committee consider that the difficulties connected with the single span arch type are not insuperable, the question will still remain whether the advantages of this type are sufficient to outweigh the additional expense involved. It has been argued that a prosperous and wealthy city like Calcutta can afford the best and most efficient bridge that modern engineering science can produce. On the other hand, the cost of the new bridge will fall directly or indirectly on the people who use it, and it has been contended that the present generation may rest satisfied with a type of bridge which, in spite of admitted drawbacks, served its purpose well until increasing traffic made it inadequate for the needs of the city, and which is free from the risks which would necessarily be involved, at least to some extent, in the adoption of any new design. Though the committee has been so constituted as to provide Government with an authoritative professional opinion on the various engineering problems involved, its members are all interested from different points of view in the prosperity and convenience of the public of Calcutta and its neighbourhood, and the Governor in Council invites a full expression of their opinion from the widest point of view.

6. The committee will be constituted as follows:—

Members.

Sir Rajendra Nath Mookerjee, K.C.I.E., President.

Sir George Godfrey, Kt., Agent, Bengal-Nagpur Railway.

Mr. C. D. M. Hindley, Chairman, Port Commissioners, Calcutta.

Mr. J. McGlashan, Chief Engineer, Port Commissioners, Calcutta.

Mr. James R. Coats, Chief Engineer, Calcutta Corporation.

Mr. C. Addams Williams, C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Irrigation Department.

Member and Secretary.

Mr. G. G. Dey, Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

The committee will sit in Calcutta, on such dates as may be arranged by the President, and it is hoped that they will be able to submit their report by the middle of December. Any persons interested, who desire to place their views before the committee or to give evidence, should communicate with the Secretary not later than the 15th November 1921.

NEW BRIDGE BETWEEN CALCUTTA AND HOWRAH.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF ENGINEERS.

I.—Introduction.

1. In Bengal Government Resolution No. 20 T.—Marine of the 2nd June 1921, a representative Committee was appointed to investigate and report on the necessity of an opening span in the proposed Howrah Bridge from the point of view of the working of the Port of Calcutta. The Committee submitted their report in July 1921, and expressed the opinion that it was not necessary for the work of the Port that ocean-going steamers should continue to proceed above the bridge and that it would suffice to have a bridge with a fixed headway permitting the passage of inland craft.

2. The Governor in Council accepted the view of the Committee and as previous expert advice received by Government on the type of bridge to be adopted had been based on the assumption that an opening span was required, it was decided to have the whole question re-examined by a Committee of Engineers appointed to advise Government as to the most suitable type of bridge to be constructed.

II.—Appointment of Committee of Engineers and terms of reference.

3. In Bengal Government Resolution No. 3541 Marine of the 4th November 1921, (pages 1 to 3), the present Committee was appointed, the terms of reference being as follows:—

(a) Whether the risks attendant upon the single span arch-type of bridge, even after the elimination of the opening span, are so serious, as to make its adoption unduly hazardous.

(b) If it is decided that Government would not be justified in running the risks involved in the single span arch-type, the Committee should consider what other type they can recommend, having regard to the considerations set out in the Resolution, and to any other considerations which may present themselves.

(c) If, on the other hand, the Committee consider that the difficulties connected with the single span arch-type are not insuperable, the question will still remain whether the advantages of this type are sufficient to outweigh the additional expense involved.

The Committee were also invited to give a full expression of opinion on the most suitable type of bridge from the widest point of view.

III.—Proceedings.

4. The Committee assembled at its first meeting on the 15th November, and held twelve full meetings including a local inspection of the present bridge and sites in its vicinity, together with five Sub-Committee meetings. The Proceedings of these meetings are given in Appendix 1. Owing to the departure on leave of Mr. G. G. Dey, the Secretary of the Committee, Mr. C. Addams Williams was appointed in his place as Secretary from the 10th December 1921.

5. Members of the public were invited to place before the Committee any information which might be of assistance, and the following gentlemen gave evidence either oral* or written, or both:—

Mr. Bagley, Consulting Engineer, Messrs. Gillanders, Arbuthnot & Co. (Appendix 2).

Mr. Humphryes and Mr. Radice of Messrs. Braithwaite & Co. (Appendix 3).

Mr. Colvin, Agent, East Indian Railway, and Mr. Higman, Traffic Manager, East Indian Railway (Appendix 4).

Mr. Aslett, Chief Engineer, East Indian Railway (Appendix 5).

Mr. Atkins, Chief Engineer, Calcutta Improvement Trust (Appendix 6).

Mr. Sales, Bridge Engineer, State Railways.

Mr. Remfry, Consulting Engineer (Appendix 7).

Mr. Hindley, Chairman of the Calcutta Port Commissioners (Appendix 10).

Mr. McGlashan, Chief Engineer of the Calcutta Port Commissioners (Appendix 11).

6. Papers were also received from Messrs. L. H. Swain, Bridge Engineer, Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway, B. B. Gupta, G. Dubern, H. Rolfe of Messrs. Rolfe & Co., R. M. Ghose, and R. R. Chatterjee and were considered by the Committee. Mr. Bagley's paper† on the Howrah Bridge Problem, read before the Institution of Engineers (India) in February 1921, advocating a twin floating bridge to the design of Sir Bradford Leslie, together with the subsequent discussion of this paper by the members of the Institution, was also considered by the Committee.

7. Mr. Popham, Deputy Harbour Master, gave evidence in regard to the precautions taken in the Port against vessels breaking away from their moorings and the effect of such a contingency on the proposed bridge; and a note on this subject was submitted by the Deputy Conservator of the Port (Appendix 8),

8. Mr. Bompas, Chairman, and Mr. Atkins, Chief Engineer, of the Calcutta Improvement Trust, attended a meeting by request, and gave their views (Appendix 1) in regard to the site and approaches to the bridge on the Calcutta side in relation to the operations of the Trust in the vicinity, and also in reference to arrangements for traffic using the bridge, and our recommendations on these matters, based on their opinions, are shown on Plate No I submitted with this report.

IV.—Headway.

9. The Committee decided that as the necessity for providing an opening span had been eliminated, the first question to be decided was the amount of headway to be allowed under the bridge for river traffic. Conferences were therefore arranged with the representatives of the River Steamer Companies concerned, with Messrs. Addams Williams and McGlashan, in order to determine the headway to be allowed in the case of (a) a fixed bridge, (b) a floating bridge. It was found that practically all the largest inland steamers now in use, or under construction, or likely to be constructed in the future, were 37½ feet or less overall in height, and with a draft of 5 feet would require 32½ feet actual clearance between the under side of the bridge and the water surface, which means that for practical purposes such a steamer could not be safely passed under the bridge unless there were a clearance of 35 feet. An investigation of the rise and fall of the tides throughout the year, demonstrated by diagrams, the more important of which are printed in Appendix 1, showed that a headway of 29 feet above high water of spring tides (22·50 feet above old

* Appendix 1.

† Printed in the Proceedings of the Institution of Engineers (India), Vol. I. September 1921

Kidderpore Dock sill), in the case of a fixed bridge, would provide 35 feet of clearance for no less than 12 hours in the 24 even on the day of the highest spring tide of the year. During the remainder of the year, for no less than 92 per cent. of the time, all such vessels could pass through, and at low water the clearance would be as much as 49 feet. Even if an extra 3 feet clearance were required to allow for contingencies of draft and weather and other navigation restrictions, this clearance would still be available for 8½ hours on the day of the worst high water tide of the year. It was therefore decided to adopt 29 feet as the necessary headway above high water spring tides.

In the case of a floating bridge, it is obvious that the headway would be a fixed one, independent of the state of the tide, except for slight differences due to variable loading of the bridge, rough weather and the effect of uneven loading on the draft of vessels. It was decided that with a floating bridge the headway allowed should not be less than 35 feet.

10. The representatives of the Steamer Companies accepted these figures (Appendix 9) and we have no hesitation in recommending them for adoption in the final design. The question of gradient of the roadway, which we discuss later in the report, has an important bearing on the matter of headway, and in securing the agreement of the Steamer Companies to the figures now mentioned, we are satisfied that their operations, either in the present or the future, will not be unduly hampered, while the headway adopted permits of satisfactory gradients being obtained for the roadway on a fixed bridge. In accordance with this finding, our subsequent recommendations are based on these figures.

V.—Types of Bridges.

11. Single Span Arch Bridge.—We have had before us all the different proposals which have been made in the past and have carefully considered their relative merits. As instructed in our terms of reference, we have considered first the proposal for a single span arch bridge, a sketch design for which was submitted to Government by Mr. Basil Mott. The primary objections to Mr. Mott's design are firstly the difficulty, if not the impracticability, and secondly the prohibitive expense, of securing the abutments on the deltaic soil of the Hooghly against lateral movement due to the horizontal thrust of the arch. Any such movement would cause a deformation of the arch with sagging of the suspended platform and might lead to the collapse of the whole structure. With the knowledge which we possess of the conditions of the soil in Calcutta, we should not be justified in recommending the adoption of a structure which would be liable to total destruction through movement in the abutments. It is true that eliminating the opening span simplifies matters and makes it possible to take up this horizontal thrust by means of a bottom tension chord, but this would not only greatly increase the cost, but on account of the gradient on the chord would also set up secondary stresses of great magnitude in the other members, between the top and bottom booms of the arch. Such a modification would in fact produce a bow-string girder of excessive height and uneconomical proportions. This type has never been adopted for a span larger than 720 feet (over the Ohio River at Metropolis, Illinois).

12. We are, moreover, much influenced by the difficulties of erection of a bridge such as Mr. Mott has recommended or even of a modification of the design which would follow on the elimination of the opening span. Having taken into consideration the most modern methods of erecting such a structure which are known to us, we believe that it would be necessary to provide erection towers on each bank about 300 feet high. The whole of the material used in these towers, as well as the expensive erection plant, would be of little or no value when dismantled, and this would add considerably to the cost of the scheme. Temporary anchorages would have to be provided, which would extend to a considerable distance inland and would involve great interference with expensive property in the neighbourhood. We realise that interference of this kind in Calcutta, except in the case of land owned by Government or a public authority, is not always such as can be compensated for by money payments, and we anticipate most serious delay, and possible opposition, to the scheme if such operations as would be involved in the erection of an arch structure were attempted anywhere near the present site of the bridge.

We have carefully considered the probable effects of storms and earthquakes. We believe that this type of bridge would be more liable to damage from such causes than any other type of fixed bridge. We would emphasize the fact that engineering experience in regard to this type of structure is limited to observations on no span as large as 1,000 feet, whereas the span of the bridge over the Hooghly cannot be made less than 1,400 feet. The largest single arch span as yet built is that of the " Hell Gate " Bridge over East River, New York, the span of which is 977 feet and which is founded on rock. We do not consider that it is within our duty to recommend an experiment of this nature, even though it should prove that the foundations are more suitable than we believe them to be.

We therefore answer the first question in our terms of reference in the affirmative.

We estimate that the weight of such a structure, including live loads, would be approximately 20,000 tons on each abutment and that the cost would be in the neighbourhood of £3,000,000, including abutments and approaches, but excluding any compensation for land or property.

This estimate, together with the other estimates given in this report for other types of bridges, is also exclusive of any compensation which may have to be paid for interference with docking interests above the present bridge, due to the omission of an opening span, a factor which is common to all of the types considered.

13. With the rejection of a single arch span we have the choice before us of the following types of bridge:—

Suspension bridge.
Pier and girder bridge.
Floating bridge.
Cantilever bridge.

14. Suspension Bridge.—Most of the disadvantages of the single span arch bridge which have led us to reject that type are inherent in the suspension bridge type. The construction of the anchorages would interfere with valuable property, while the cables would form a permanent obstruction to roadways and buildings, particularly on the Calcutta side of the river. An attempt to bring the anchorages so near to the river bank as to avoid this interference and obstruction would necessitate building the abutments in the river itself, thereby not only narrowing the waterway but introducing into the stream the same adverse influences which have led us, as explained later in the report, to the rejection of any proposal involving the construction of piers in the river bed. The lateral strengthening of the structure which would be necessary to meet wind pressure would mean considerable expenditure, while the danger from abnormal storms or earthquakes would be nearly as great as in the case of an arch bridge. We are also of opinion that the cost of maintenance in such a bridge would be considerably higher than in other types of fixed bridge. Its massive masonry anchorages would also be subject to forces the horizontal component of which we consider would be difficult to arrange for and which would introduce a degree of risk which we should not be justified in recommending.

15. The cost may be roughly estimated at £2,500,000. We are not impressed with any of the advantages claimed for this type of bridge, and its disadvantages lead us to reject it as unsuitable to the particular local conditions.

16. Pier and Girder Bridge.—We have given this type of bridge our very careful consideration. It has been strongly recommended to us by expert opinion, and its comparatively low cost and its other advantages are considerations which would ordinarily outweigh any but the most serious objections from other points of view.

17. The question whether piers can be safely constructed in the River Hooghly at or near the present site has formed a controversial issue between experts for many years past. The Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta, who as Conservators of the River Hooghly are responsible for the maintenance of the waterway through the Port, have laid it down that no piers should be permitted at this place. After considering the report of the Committee of Engineers of 1910, the Port Commissioners imposed this prohibition as a fundamental condition in the call for designs and tenders in 1911, and have recently reaffirmed it in their letter to Government when dealing with a reference on the general question of the bridge in 1920. We have included in the appendix to this report, papers showing the importance which the Port Commissioners attach to this condition (Appendix 10).

18. Under their statutory powers the Port Commissioners may have the right to enforce this prohibition, but we considered that we should not be justified in basing our recommendations on it without examining the evidence and the expert opinions on which the principle has been arrived at. Mr. McGlashan's note on this subject (Appendix 11) shows clearly what were the reasons for this prohibition, and we are impressed with the fact that all recorded experience and available expert opinion on the River Hooghly point to considerable danger as likely to arise through the introduction of piers into the river bed.

19. We are not satisfied that further investigation and prolonged practical work on the river would not lead to a demonstration that such danger could not be kept by engineering means within negligible limits, but we are satisfied that the present knowledge is not sufficient to justify the Conservators in taking the risk of allowing the construction of piers, and that the accumulation of further experimental data which are required for a settlement of this difficult question would involve operations which might be in themselves a source of danger to existing Port facilities and might cause several years of delay in constructing the bridge, a delay which cannot be contemplated with equanimity either by the Government or the public.

We have also given special weight to the vital necessity, brought clearly to notice by the Nadia Rivers Committee, of preserving unimpaired by all possible means the tidal flow through the Port on which for eight months of the year the existence of the waterway depends. We consider that this adds force to the expert opinion on which the Port Commissioners' decision upon this question has been based.

20. It is in contemplation to permit the use of piers in the construction of the proposed new railway bridge over the Hooghly at Bally, where the width of the river renders any other type of bridge impracticable, and in this connection we would draw attention to the following opinion of Sir Francis Spring given to the Port Commissioners in 1913 with reference to that bridge:—

> "I am of opinion that piers of more or less 20 feet thick, founded on wells of a size more or less 60 feet by 37 feet and sunk to a depth of 40 or 50 feet below the bottom level of the deepest hole to be found anywhere in the river within three or four miles of the site, will not be likely to cause currents or swirls detrimental to the régime of the river, or likely to affect any interest situated beyond a mile downstream from the chosen site of the bridge."

There would therefore appear to be justification for permitting piers in the river at a distance from the specially important Calcutta area, while forbidding their use in Calcutta itself.

21 We have already mentioned the comparatively low cost of such a structure and we believe that it could be built for £1,600,000, but for cogent reasons which we have fully explained we are unable to recommend the adoption of this type.

22. Floating Bridge.—We have carefully considered the design submitted to the Government of Bengal by Sir Bradford Leslie and have had the advantage of Mr. Bagley's exposition of the proposal. We have also had before us the discussion which took place at the Institution of Engineers (India) on the paper read before that body on this proposal in February 1921. The design is based on the supposition that an opening span should be provided, and the principle recommended is that of twin bridges supported on clusters of pontoons with an opening span of 210 feet in each bridge. We consider that to accommodate the traffic which it is anticipated will pass over the bridge in the future, the adoption of the floating type necessitates the twin bridge construction, which introduces certain serious difficulties in connection with the approaches. Diagrams to show the movement of road traffic with such a bridge indicate that there would be a good deal of inconvenience and confusion, with consequent congestion, caused by the numerous crossing streams of traffic at the junctions of the approaches with the main roads on either side of the river (Appendix 2).

23. The design submitted by Sir Bradford Leslie would require modification to suit the elimination of the opening span, and we can only make general assumptions as to the design which he would recommend if he were asked to re-design the bridge to suit the new conditions. We are, however, struck very forcibly by certain important disadvantages inherent in this type of bridge.

24. As shown in paragraph 9, a headway of 35 feet must be allowed at all states of the tide, and this involves at periods of high water much steeper gradients on the road than with a fixed bridge, although we admit that on the average the gradients would be more favourable with the floating bridge.

25. The change in gradient with the rise and fall of the tide would introduce a serious and most adverse complication in regard to the running of trams over the bridge. We have examined diagrams which have been prepared to show the effect on running trams of the alterations in the vertical angle of tram lines at the points where the gradients would be constantly changing, and find that it would be difficult to design tram cars or rail joints which would ensure running over these flexure points with either comfort or safety. This difficulty is not peculiar to Sir Bradford Leslie's design, but would occur in any bridge of a floating type designed to suit the conditions regarding headway which are essential

26. One of the greatest disadvantages of a floating type of bridge, whether twin or single, is that with this type the permissible loading would be very far short of what we consider it necessary to provide for. We have it in evidence from Mr. Bagley that no floating bridge could be designed with a floor of sufficient strength for the loading which, in our opinion, is essential if the road traffic between Calcutta and Howrah is not to be permanently hampered by restrictions such as would not be acceptable in any modern city.

While designing a work the whole object of which is the improvement of means of road transport in this city we are satisfied that it would be a retrograde step to introduce with the construction of that work a restriction which would affect unfavourably the future development of mechanical road traction.

27. In considering this type of bridge we have taken evidence on the probable effect of a collision between a large ocean-going steamer and the bridge. Our attention has been drawn to this possibility by expert witnesses who were unfavourable to any fixed structure being constructed over the Hooghly at this point. We understand that the method of controlling the mooring and movement of ships in the Port makes it practically impossible for a large ship to become unmanageable and collide with the bridge. At the same time we cannot exclude such an eventuality, and we find both from our own judgment and from that of several expert witnesses that in such an event the effect on a fixed bridge would be considerably less than on a floating bridge. In the latter case, with the long pontoons in clusters, which would be necessary, there is grave risk of several of them being sunk and of the whole bridge being wrecked, while with a fixed bridge the damage done to the ship would be much more serious than to the structure of the bridge, which in any type would be of great stiffness where it would be liable to be struck by the superstructure of a ship.

28. Another disadvantage of a floating bridge is the difficulty of inland vessels negotiating the fairway without colliding with the pontoons. With the present bridge these inland vessels only use the opening at high water slack, when there is little or no current in the river, but with a non-opening span type of floating bridge these vessels would pass under it at all states of the tide, and in the case of a large steamer towing two large flats abreast with a total beam of 150 feet, the most careful navigation would be required in the strong diagonal currents, to avoid fouling the clusters of pontoons.

29. Further, the obstruction caused by the pontoons to the free flow of water, while not producing an effect comparable to that of the piers of a fixed bridge, must have some effect on the tidal flow in the river, and it is most desirable, as we have already pointed out, that such interference should not be permitted if it is possible to avoid it.

30. In regard to recurring cost, we are of opinion that the annual cost of maintenance of a bridge of the floating type would be much greater than in the case of a fixed bridge, where the whole of the steel work would be above water level and easily accessible.

31. The estimate for this type is placed at £1,650,000 for twin bridges, to which must be added the capitalized value of the heavier recurring maintenance charges, the amount of which we have not estimated.*

32. Our considered opinion on a floating bridge is that it can only be regarded as second best for local conditions, and that it would be merely a temporary solution of the problem, that it would be insuitable in many important respects, and finally, that it would be altogether unworthy of a great City.

33. Cantilever Bridge.—The cantilever type of bridge is regarded by eminent Bridge Engineers as the most economical of large span bridges in first cost. It was adopted for a span of 1,800 feet at Quebec over the St. Lawrence River and for a span of 1,700 feet at the Forth Bridge and in other cases where the primary consideration was the necessity for a large clear span over water. It is capable of being constructed with comparative ease and without elaborate staging, and the gradual imposition of the load on the foundations during the process of construction gives it a great advantage over an arch bridge, where a sudden change in the distribution of pressure takes place when the erection staging is removed. A cantilever bridge has also great rigidity against live loads and wind stresses and provides ease of inspection and maintenance. It is one of the types of fixed bridges least likely to be damaged by earthquakes.

34. We find that it is possible to design a cantilever bridge, the anchor arms of which would not interfere with traffic in the adjoining streets, either during the period of construction or permanently. This is a very important consideration and one which has influenced us in deciding to recommend the adoption of this type.

35. It is true that with this type the weight on the abutments will be high, but the pressure will be vertical and there is no horizontal component to be arranged for, as in the case of the arch or suspension bridge. An approximate estimate of the weight on each abutment with this type of bridge is 30,000 tons, and with the hitherto accepted figure for permissible foundation pressure in Calcutta this would mean providing a very large foundation area.

During the progress of our work, however, a very valuable experiment has been conducted by the Chief Engineer of the Port Commissioners on the nature of the soil at the site which we recommend for the bridge, the results of which have been placed at our disposal by the Port Commissioners. Borings have been made which have proved the existence of a stratum of hard grey clay at a depth of 97 feet below the surface (+ 24·00) on the Calcutta side and 79 feet on the Howrah side. The borings were taken down 55 feet into this hard clay on both sides of the river. The experiment which is still in progress, has shown that this clay will stand a load of 5½ tons per square foot with a total sinkage of only $\frac{7}{16}$ ths of an inch after 25 days' trial. It is therefore clear that there will be no difficulty whatever in providing for the total pressure on the abutments of the cantilever bridge with a foundation area of reasonable size and without extensive interference with neighbouring buildings and property.

* Since this report was in print we have received information that a well known Bridge Company are prepared to construct a twin floating bridge to Sir Bradford Leslie's design for a sum of £ 1,600,000 within a period of 2½ years. This information confirms our estimate but in no way alters the opinions we have expressed in this report.

36. From figures given to us by expert bridge builders we estimate the cost of this type of bridge at £2,000,000 and are of opinion that it could be constructed in 3½ years from the date of commencement.

37. After carefully considering the whole problem in all its bearings we unanimously recommend the adoption of the cantilever type, which we believe is eminently suitable to the particular conditions of this river crossing and will give better value for the money expended in convenience to road and river traffic, in length of life and in cheapness of upkeep than any other type which could be adopted.

We have shown in Plate No. I, prepared by Mr. McGlashan, an outline design for a cantilever bridge, and while rigid adherence to this particular design is not absolutely necessary, we consider that the leading dimensions should not be departed from to any great extent. A perspective view is shown on Plate No. IV.

VI.—Site and Gradients.

38. The site of the existing bridge is unsuitable for a new fixed bridge owing to difficulties connected with construction. It would be necessary to remove the present bridge temporarily to another site previously prepared, before construction could be commenced, and to divert the roads to suit this new site. Apart from questions of expense, the inconvenience caused by such an operation involving serious interruptions to traffic, both on the river and on the roads, in the case of the latter extending to ten days or more, render it a practical impossibility. It is clear therefore that another site must be selected.

The object to be aimed at is to provide a direct link between the important traffic centre at the junction of Harrison Road and Strand Road on the Calcutta side, with Howrah Station and the system of roads on the Howrah side which are based on the Grand Trunk Road. The present site provides this link in the most direct form, but apart from constructional difficulties we find that it is impossible to arrange the approach roads for this site with reasonable gradients to serve the Strand Road and Harrison Road without considerable interference with valuable property, or to serve Howrah Station without an unnecessarily long detour.

39. Any site below the present bridge and in its immediate proximity would present the same difficulties as regards gradients, and would also interfere with important property on the Calcutta side while interfering with Howrah Station and providing a very indirect approach to the Grand Trunk Road on the Howrah side.

40. A possible site 250 feet upstream, between Chattu Lall Ghat and Goenka Ghat, on the Calcutta side would involve somewhat similar difficulties as regards gradients on the approaches, while it would be difficult to avoid interference with the former ghat, which we have ascertained is undesirable on religious grounds. After careful inspection of the locality we have decided that the best site is on a centre line, commencing on the Calcutta side 630 feet above the centre line of the present bridge, between the south end of the Port Commissioners' Jagganath Ghat shed and Mullick Ghat, and running to a point on the Howrah side 580 feet above the centre line of the present bridge. The exact position of the abutment and approach on the Howrah side can be selected without such restrictions as exist on the Calcutta side, as the land on the former side is already the property of a public body, namely, the Port Commissioners, the present lessees, Messrs. Jessop & Co., holding leases which can be terminated by suitable arrangement. In fixing the centre line we have therefore adopted a direction at right angles to the main axis of the river at this point which will provide the shortest crossing compatible with non-interference with the river.

41. Proximity of the foundation construction operations to the Port Commissioners' sheds and Mullick Ghat may cause some risk to parts of those buildings, as experiments have shown that the disturbing effect of such operations may extend to a distance of 100 feet from the outside of the foundations. This risk can, however, be reduced by suitable precautions, and we do not anticipate the necessity for any very extensive reconstruction of those buildings. The small Shradh Ghat adjoining Mullick Ghat would, however, be interfered with seriously and before the foundations of the bridge are commenced it will be necessary to rebuild it elsewhere on a suitable site, to which we have ascertained there is no objection on religious or other grounds.

42. In deciding on our recommendations in regard to the approach roads on the Calcutta side, we have taken the advice of the Calcutta Improvement Trust, while on the Howrah side, in the absence of any definite recommendation from any local authority, we have accepted a lay-out suggested by the Chief Engineer of the East Indian Railway, which provides a suitable access to Howrah Station and also to the Grand Trunk Road, partly through property which is now being developed by that Railway as a residential quarter. The site and the approaches are shown on Plate No. I attached to this report and provide for gradients not steeper than 1 in 40 on the straight portions and 1 in 80 on the curved portions.

43. We have already stated in this report that the adoption of a fixed type of bridge enables the headway over high water (+ 22·50) to be reduced to 29 feet as compared with the headway of 35 feet over the same water level in the case of a floating bridge. This means that the highest level to which all road traffic must be raised is + 56·00 over datum in the case of a fixed bridge compared with + 62·00 in the case of a floating bridge at high water, the level of Strand Road being about + 25·00. In the former case we are enabled to provide for a permanent grading on the bridge of 1 in 59 with 200 feet level in the centre, whereas in the latter case the gradient would have to be 1 in 38·20 at high water, and this gradient would remain constant on either slope of the central span. This comparison is indicated on Plate No. II printed with the report, which also shows the gradients which we recommend for adoption in designing the cantilever bridge.

44. We do not attach much importance to the additional distance of about 200 yards for traffic coming from the south of Calcutta to Howrah and vice versa, while for traffic from or to the north of Calcutta a similar distance will be saved. It is possible that the new position of the bridge will reduce to some extent the room now available for manœuvring inland vessels at the Jagganath Ghat sheds, but we do not consider that this will impair the convenience of this landing place or adversely affect the interests of the Inland Steamer Companies to any extent. The ferry landing stage at present on the site selected on the Calcutta side will require removal to a new position, but this will not involve either great expense or any serious inconvenience to passengers. The Port Commissioners' Railway line along the Strand Bank will require to be regraded and carried in a subway under the bridge approach, but with the experience gained in constructing the subway under the present bridge approach this will not present any engineering difficulty.

45. We may note here that the lay-out of the approaches on the Calcutta side will necessitate the absorption of land at present occupied by the Mint on the river side of Strand Road. It is essential that no undue delay be incurred in effecting the removal of the Mint, the desirability of which on general grounds we understand has already been accepted. We are informed that negotiations in this direction are now in progress between the Calcutta Improvement Trust and the Government of India.

VII.—Width of Roadway and Loading.

46. It is necessary to provide for a line of tramway in each direction over the bridge, and the density of traffic moving over the present bridge and its growth in recent years clearly show that at least three lines of vehicular traffic each way should be accommodated, in addition to the tramways.

47. In regard to the footpaths, a calculation based on the rate at which passengers from Howrah Station can be given access to the bridge from trains at the rush hours, shows that a footpath 12 feet wide on each side will not be excessive. Allowance has been made both for normal growth of foot traffic and for the fact that the tramways will accommodate many who now go on foot.

48. Allowing 18 feet for the two lines of tramway, 58 feet for the six lines of traffic and 24 feet for the two footpaths, we have a total width of 100 feet, and this is the figure we recommend for adoption in designing the bridge, the footpaths being placed outside the main girders as shown in Plate No. III. We consider it of importance thus to separate the foot passenger traffic from the wheeled traffic.

49. In considering the question of loading we have had the advantage of the investigations recently made in connection with the design for the bridge over Tolly's Nullah at Kidderpore. We recommend that the following loadings should be provided for on the roadway:—

(a) Tramcars having a bogie wheel base of 18 feet and a total load of 25 tons.

(b) Motor lorries with 4 tons on front and 12 tons on back axle spaced 12 feet apart.

(c) Steam rollers, weight 15 tons with 9 tons on front and 6 tons on back axle, spaced 11 feet apart.

and for a width of 12 feet on the outer sides of the roadway—

(d) Tractors with 10 tons on front axle and 12 tons on back axle, spaced 10 feet apart, followed by boiler trucks with 25 tons on each axle spaced 12 feet apart, the distance between the back axle of the tractor and the front axle of the boiler truck being 10 feet.

For the purpose of the design of all subsidiary members directly affected, such as floor beams and secondary trusses, the abovementioned moving loads will be concentrated loads, and we recommend that tramcars should be considered as developing an initial impact of 40 per cent. of their static load, and motor lorries 50 per cent. No impact need, we think, be allowed for steam rollers or tractors. In computing the load for the main members, we are of opinion that allowance should be made for a continuous stream of tramcars on both tracks.

VIII.—Compensation for land, etc.

50. In furnishing estimated figures for the cost of the different types of bridge considered we have not included the compensation to be paid for land occupied or for interference with other rights. The amount of such compensation would have to be settled under the Land Acquisition Act, or otherwise, and we do not consider it to be within our province to prejudice any such proceedings by mentioning probable figures for the expenditure involved. We desire, however, to indicate the various directions in which liability for such compensation may arise.

51. On the Calcutta side, the land to be occupied by the foundations and approaches is Government land, partly in the occupation of the Port Commissioners and partly in the occupation of the Mint.

The cost of protecting, or in the alternative, making good any damage done to Mullick Ghat and to the Port Commissioners' shed at Jagganath Ghat would have to be met from the Bridge Project Funds, as well as the cost of reconstructing the Shradh Ghat on another site, the removal of the passenger landing stage, and the extension of the railway subway.

52. On the Howrah side of the river the Bridge Project Funds would have to meet the compensation which might be legally found to be due in respect of the termination of the lease of such portion of the Port Commissioners' land as is held by Messrs. Jessop & Co.

53. For the connection between the foot of the graded approach and the Grand Trunk Road, acquisition of land would be necessary, but whether the cost of this should fall on the Bridge Project Funds, or on the local authority responsible for road connections we are not in a position to say. It would appear reasonable that the improvements to the road connections which the new bridge will render possible and which are in any case badly needed at the present time should form a liability on the local authority and, in the event of an Improvement Trust being formed for Howrah, the duty would be that of the Trust.

54. Lastly, we have to mention that in connection with the decision of Government that an opening span is not required in the new bridge, it has been stated by the Committee who reported on that question that "the only interests which would be injuriously affected would be those of the owners and lessees of the Docks above the bridge which are at present in actual use for docking ocean-going steamers."

The question whether compensation would be legally due to such interests and the amount of such compensation is a matter which must be left for settlement by proper authority, but we have mentioned it in view of the contingent liability which may have to be met by the Bridge Project Funds and which would form an addition to the initial cost of the bridge.

IX —Condition of the present floating bridge.

55. As already stated, we have made an inspection of the present bridge, and although we have not been instructed in our terms of reference to report on the structure, we think it desirable in dealing with the question of replacement that we should record our opinion upon its condition, because the necessity, which is obvious to us, of arranging for its very early replacement has been a factor in our consideration of the type to be adopted.

At our inspection the condition of the bridge was explained to us by Mr. McGlashan, Chief Engineer to the Port Commissioners. In the year 1916 extensive repairs had to be undertaken owing primarily to the deterioration of the timber beams carrying the floorway. In the course of replacement of these beams by steel girders the whole of the structure was found to be in a very unsatisfactory condition, and one shore span in particular was found to be so weakened by corrosion and decay in the main booms that special ties had to be designed and applied to enable the girders to stand up to their work. We may say that three of the members of the present Committee had an opportunity of inspecting the bridge at the time when these operations were in progress. The repairs then undertaken were not intended or expected to enable the bridge to be retained for more than a few years, and any great delay in replacing it, would involve most serious risks and might result in its total loss. It is not necessary for us to emphasize the effects of such a loss on the whole life of Calcutta and its suburbs.

We therefore strongly recommend that without waiting for a decision as to the sources from which financial provision is to be made for the construction of the new bridge, steps should be taken at once by Government through their Consulting Engineers to obtain a specification and tenders for the bridge as recommended by us. We believe that the information and diagrams given in this report are sufficient for the purpose.

X.—Summary of Recommendations.

56 We can now summarise our recommendations:—

(a) We recommend, in view of the serious condition of the existing floating bridge and the grave consequences which would result from its failure, that no time be lost in providing a new bridge over the River Hooghly.

(b) We recommend that the bridge should be built of the cantilever type to the leading dimensions, loading and general description shown in this report

(c) We recommend that the new bridge should be built on the site shown in Plate No I on a centre line running from a point 630 feet north of the centre of the present bridge on the Calcutta side, to a point 580 feet north of the centre of the present bridge on the Howrah side.

(d) We recommend that steps should be taken at once by Government to obtain a specification and tenders for the bridge recommended by us, without waiting for a decision in regard to the financing of the bridge construction.

57. As already stated in the body of our report, we have answered the first question in our terms of reference in the affirmative, the second question is answered by our recommendation of the cantilever type, and the third question does not arise

APPOINTMENT OF A LABOUR INTELLIGENCE OFFICER FOR BENGAL.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

CALCUTTA, THE 15TH MARCH 1922.

RESOLUTION—No. 1163 Com.

As a result of the recommendations of the Indian Industrial Commission and in view of the complex labour situation which arose after the war, the Government of Bengal, after consultation with the Government of India, created, with effect from the 1st July 1920, a temporary post of Industrial Intelligence Officer. This officer's duty was in general to collect and make available for the public detailed information on matters connected with the development of industry, and in particular to investigate and report on labour conditions and the facts and causes of labour disturbances. The term for which this post was created expired on the 28th February 1922. The attention of the Industrial Intelligence Officer during the last 18 months has been occupied almost entirely with the wide-spread unrest in the labour world. India's international obligations as a member of the League of Nations, and in particular her active participation in the International Labour Conferences involve the systematic collection of information regarding her labour problems for supply, both to the International Labour Office itself and to the delegates of India to the Conferences. Moreover, it is the request of the Secretary of State that labour disturbances in India should be accurately and promptly reported to him for the information of Parliament. Further in paragraph 19 of their report, the Committee on Industrial Unrest appointed by this Government in 1921, laid great stress on the importance, if Government was to maintain a proper watch over the industrial situation, of its having full and early information about all forms of labour troubles. In view of these considerations which indicate the necessity for a separate organisation in Bengal to deal properly with labour matters and to keep Government informed regarding them, the Governor in Council has decided to create directly under this Government a post of Labour Intelligence Officer temporarily for two years in the first instance. Mr. R. N. Gilchrist of the Indian Educational Service has been appointed to this post with effect from the 6th March 1922.

2. The collection of industrial intelligence including information connected with the development of industries will, for the present, be undertaken by the Director of Industries, to whom all references connected with this subject should be addressed.

ORDER.—Ordered that this resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information and copies forwarded to the officers concerned.

By order of the Governor in Council,

H. E. SPRY,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE MAGISTERIAL ENQUIRY INTO THE SALANGA HÂT SHOOTING INCIDENT, PABNA, ON THE 27TH JANUARY 1922.

RESOLUTION—No. 4599P.

The Report of the Magisterial enquiry into the Salanga Hât shooting incident Pabna, on the 27th January 1922.

On the 27th January 1922 an attack was made on a force of armed police at Salanga Hât in the district of Pabna, and the police opened fire with the result that six persons were killed and 31 wounded. A magisterial enquiry was started at once, and a report was received by Government on the 18th February. As the police investigation into the riot case has now been closed, and no proceedings are pending against any individual, the Magistrate's report is published for general information.

The reason for the outbreak is clearly shown to be the turbulent spirit aroused in the neighbourhood by the propaganda carried on under the guise of the non-co-operation movement by irresponsible bands of volunteers, encouraged by previous successful attempts to resist the forces of law and order. The immediate cause of the attack on the police force was the arrest of certain volunteers who were intimidating the shopkeepers and preventing the public generally from having access to the shops. His Excellency in Council is of opinion that the evidence shows that the crowd was in a dangerous mood and determined to rescue the prisoners. The District Magistrate and the Superintendent of Police who were present in person showed commendable patience in dealing with the mob, and the orders to fire were only given when the police force was clearly in danger. His Excellency in Council agrees with the Commissioner that the orders to fire were justified and inevitable in the very difficult circumstances in which the district officials were placed. The number of shots fired was large, but the attack on the police was of a persistent and determined character. However had the firing been more properly regulated from the outset it is possible that the dispersal of the mob could have been effected earlier and at less expenditure of ammunition. The orders of Government prohibit the firing of blank ammunition in dealing with riots; though the desire of the officers to avoid bloodshed was natural, this direction is based on long experience, and in the present case there is evidence that the risk which is always to be apprehended was actually incurred, namely, that the mob became the more defiant and reckless by seeing that the earlier shots were ineffective.

The order to cease fire was given as soon as the mob showed signs of dispersing, and every effort was made to attend to the wounded. His Excellency in Council regrets exceedingly that this loss of life ensued, but he considers that the District Magistrate took the only action possible, and the responsibility for the deaths of these six man rests with those who by their propaganda inflamed the violence of the crowd.

ORDERED that this resolution together with the magisterial report be published for general information.

By order of the Governor in Council,

H. L. STEPHENSON,
Chief Secretary
to the Government of Bengal.

Report of the Magisterial enquiry into the occurrence at Salanga Hat, police station Raiganj, subdivision Sirajganj, district Pabna, on the 27th January 1922.

I OPENED the enquiry at Salanga Hât on the 28th January, and closed it at Pabna on the 12th February. The opening of the enquiry was proclaimed by beat of drum at Salanga and neighbouring villages, inviting all who had any knowledge of the occurrence to appear and give evidence. Thirty-six witnesses appeared before me and were examined by me at Salanga, 10 at Sirajganj including the Deputy Superintendent of Police and Assistant Surgeon and the rest at Pabna and Ullapara. Altogher 78 witnesses have been examined. On the day the enquiry was instituted, Babu Annada Prasad Thakur, a prominent mukhtear of Sirajganj appeared before me at Salanga and said he was watching my enquiry on behalf of the public and took full notes of the depositions. He was also present at Sirajganj and Ullapara, but was not present at Pabna. Of the 78 witnesses examined, 39 are public servants, and of the witnesses who were not in Government employ, only seven witnesses gave evidence on material points. This is due to two reasons. First, that the men who knew most about the occurrence were actually concerned in the occurrence, and could not give evidence without incriminating themselves. Second, that some of the men who might have given evidence were prevented by the non-co-operators from appearing before me.

2. Before giving an account of the present occurrence, I think I should briefly refer to the recent growth of a dangerous spirit of lawlessness and a systematic campaign of violence, intimidation and destruction prevailing in the Sirajganj subdivision, as illustrated by the following incidents :—

(1) The first incident occurred at Kalibari, police-station Belkuchi, on the 5th January 1922, when the Sub-Inspector of Belkuchi attended a non-co-operation meeting with one constable. After some speeches were made, the enrolment of volunteers commenced. The Sub-Inspector noted the names of the local volunteers. There was a volunteer from Rangpur who refused to give his name and tauntingly said his name was volunteer and his home was jailkhana. All the volunteers shouted " Bande Mataram " and some of the people present shouted " beat sala police, mar sala police." Fearing an assault, the Sub-Inspector and his constable ran off. They were chased. The constable was overtaken and his puggree torn off. The Sub-Inspector took shelter in the compound of a public woman. The mob chased him and surrounded the neighbouring house imagining that he had concealed himself in it and began to force open the door. In the interval the Sub-Inspector escaped to a cane bush and concealed himself till nightfall. He came out of his concealment at night and returned safely to the police-station escorted by some policemen who had come to rescue him. A case under sections 147 and 353, I.P.C., has been instituted. (Exhibit 8.)

(2) The second occurience took place at Chandaikona in police-station Raiganj which is about 13 miles from Salanga. At 4 P.M. on the 21st January the Sub-Inspector of Raiganj found three volunteers picketing the excise shops there. He had orders from the Subdivisional Officer, Sirajganj, to arrest volunteers picketing excise shops. He arrested the three volunteers on their refusing to give their names and addresses. Thereupon the attitude of the hât people became threatening and the Sub-Inspector manacled the three prisoners and began to remove them. The bazar people then began to shout and formed up behind the officer in charge and his men. As the crowd started to push right on to them, the Sub-Inspector ordered his three constables to fall back and check the advancing crowd. As soon as they did so, the crowd managed to separate the constables and began to beat them and pelt them with clods of earth. The Sub-Inspector thereupon ordered them to load their rifles. He himself had one and loaded it. On hearing the order to load the crowd immediately jumped on the constables, threw them down and belaboured them. One of their rifles was snatched away. The Sub-Inspector started to rētire towards the Chandaikona High school pointing his rifle at the crowd and threatening to fire if they come nearer him. At this point the Head Master of the school appeared and succeeded in getting the Sub-Inspector and the three prisoners into the school. The crowd numbering about 2,000 surrounded the school and pelted the Sub-Inspector with clods, one of which lamed him. They demanded the release of the prisoners. One of the constables had the key of the handcuffs. The key was brought and the prisoner released. The Sub-Inspector was helpless. The mob insisted on the Sub-Inspector taking off his uniform and promising to resign. In fear of his life, he was compelled to do so. At this stage the news went round that the Excise Sub-Inspector had arrived. The mob decided to have his blood. Part of the mob went off; failing to find the Excise Sub-Inspector, they wrecked the liquor shop and looted the ganja and opium shops of about Rs. 200 worth of stuff and broke up the shops. Three cases under sections 147, 353, 380 and 224, I. P. C., have been instituted. (Exhibits 5, 6 and 7).

(3) At 12 noon on the 28th January 1922, the Sub-Inspector of Kazipur with some constables, daffadars and chaukidars had gone to the village of Fuljore to investigate a fish-looting case and to arrest the offenders. There they came to know that the accused at the instigation of the non-co-operators had decided that they would neither obey the police and the Magistrate nor the orders of the present Government and that if the police came to arrest them, they would be taught a lesson. Notwithstanding this threat, the Sub-Inspector proceeded to arrest the accused. Seeing one of the accused Amanat Sarkar running off they chased him to the house of one Nazar Ali Kabiraj. Many people assembled at this house. The Sub-Inspector ordered his men to surround the house. Thereupon Nazar Ali began to abuse the Sub-Inspector and shouted "beat the salas." A dao was hurled at the Sub-Inspector aiming at his head. The Sub-Inspector was on horse-back. The dao passed by his head and dropped behind him. A daffadar seized it but was severely mulled and the dao was snatched away from him. The Sub-Inspector and his men were surrounded. The villagers who were armed with clubs threatend to kill them if they attempted to arrest the accused. They were stoned. They then cried for help. A village headman came and interfered and saved the life of the Sub-Inspector and his men. A case under sections 147, 342, 225 and 353, I. P. C., has been instituted. (Exhibit 10.)

(4) On the 26th January 1922, the flag of one Ram Karam Pandey, a surveyor of the Traverse Survey Party of Sirajganj, was forcibly taken away at Bilbagdom and when he remonstrated he was abused by the villagers and told to leave the place, otherwise he would be killed. He was reminded of what had happended to the Bogra Settlement Officer (Mr. D. MacPherson) and the Sub-Inspector of Raiganj at Chandaikona. The surveyor and his party had to leave the village ignominiously. A case under section 147, I. P. C., has been instituted. (Exhibit 11.)

(5) About the 4th January 1922, Rev. T. C. Kelly of the Australian Baptist Mission, Sirajganj, was opposed by an excited crowd at Belkuchi and forbidden to work in the hât. A volunteer snatched away a book (scripture) from a purchaser and tore it to pieces. When Mr. Kelly remonstrated he showed a defiant attitude. The volunteers followed him wherever he went and were bent on causing a disturbance. On being informed that a plot was being formed to do him serious bodily harm, he was forced to leave the place with his preachers.

Again on the 20th January 1922 Mr. Kelly visited the Salanga Hât with two Indian preachers as was his custom for many years. On his going through the cattle yard, a crowd surrounded him and demanded to know the reason for his presence at the hât. A man was excitedly asking him questions about his work in the hât and waived his fist in his face. He was forced to retire. On the following Monday, the 23rd January, when his two preachers went to the hât, they met with strong opposition from volunteers, who egged the crowd on to oppose their presence. They were threatened with bodily harm. So they retired quickly and quietly. This opposition and intimidation by the volunteers and the mob is attributed by Mr. Kelly to intense racial feeling.

(6) The evidence of excise vendors Gopal Chandra Bhattacherja and Bhawani Prasad Guin will show how the volunteers picketed excise shops, terrified the vendors and forcibly turned away the customers. As mentioned above, the excise shops at Chandaikona were wrecked and property valued at Rs. 200 looted a week before the present occurrence. The looting of the excise shop at Salanga was also in contemplation on the date of the occurrence.

3. Salanga Hât is in police-station Raiganj and 16 miles north-west of the town of Sirajganj. The people of the village and its neighbourhood are notorious for turbulence. During the agitation in connection with the Partition of Bengal and the outbreak of violence in certain parts of the province, the Salanga Hât was looted by the mob. The disturbance took place on the 17th May 1907. Some hucksters' stalls and nine foreign cloth shops of Marwaris were looted. The articles plundered were foreign salt and cloth. The total value of the property lost was estimated at Rs. 7,500. Thirty-six persons were tried and 31 convicted under sections 147 and 379, I.P.C., and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. Salanga and its neighbourhood being in a disturbed state an additional police force was quartered there for a period for one year (vide Government notification No. 4052J., dated the 19th September 1907, published in the Eastern Bengal and Assam Gazette of the 25th September 1907, at page 4025 of Part II). A detachment of Gurkhas was stationed there to maintain peace and order. The outbreak of disturbance was attributed to the preachings of some local Mahomedan leaders of Sirajganj. The present disorder is doubtless due to the propaganda of the uneducated and unscrupulous volunteers of the non-co-operation party amongst the ignorant and excitable masses.

4. On the 24th January 1922, Mr. O Sullivan, Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Rajshahi Range, came to Pabna when the difficult situation at Sirajganj was discussed. It was decided to have a route march of a contingent of the armed force through the affected parts of the Sirajganj subdivision and to start it from Chandaikona Hât on the 27th January 1922 the date of the present occurrence.

5. From the evidence adduced before me and from what I saw with my own eyes, I believe what occurred was as follows.

6. On the 27th January 1922 at about 4 P.M., the District Magistrate and the Superintendent of Police arrived at the Salanga Inspection Bungalow. They met the Deputy Superintendent of Police of Sirajganj, the Sub-Inspector of Ullapara and a detachment of the District Special Armed Force consisting of three head-constables and 24 constables. From the inspection bungalow, the party proceeded to the Salanga Hât and when they came near the cloth shops, some volunteers were found picketing there. Here some hât people complained to the District Magistrate against the intimidation and interference with sale of foreign cloth by some volunteers headed by one Anath Ray of Salanga. Some volunteers were found there with badges and Gandhi caps on. The District Magistrate ordered their arrest. The Deputy Superintendent of Police arrested two of them and made them over to some constables near him. Here some people further informed the party that more vigorous picketing was going on near the excise shop, whereupon they proceeded towards it with the arrested volunteers. The party found a batch of volunteers picketing the shop. Three or four of them were also arrested. After their arrest, one of them shouted, "Allah Ho Akbar, Bande Mataram." Thereupon there was a howling and shouting of the whole assembly. About 2,000 people then rushed towards the party and surrounded them shouting, "we will not allow the volunteers to be taken away, catch them, beat them." Their attitude was threatening. The District Magistrate, Superintendent of Police and the Deputy Superintendent of Police endeavoured to reason with and quiet them but to no effect. The armed force also tried to disperse the crowd but were equally unsuccessful Thereupon the Superintendent and the Deputy Superintendent of Police warned them that if they would not disperse they would be fired upon. At this time the fringe of the crowd surrounded the Deputy Superintendent of Police and he pushed them behind. Thereupon his hât was knocked off by one of the rioters and another man knocked him senseless by a lathi blow on his head. He began to bleed profusely. He was again hit on his left ring finger. The Superintendent of Police ran to his assistance followed by the Deputy Superintendent of Police's orderly Ramdhari Singh, Chattoo syce and constable Kishan Behari Tewari. The Superintendent of Police was given a lathi blow on the back. Ramdhari Singh was similarly assaulted. Chattoo syce was dealt a lathi blow on the head. Kishen Behari Singh was hit on his left palm by a pointed bamboo when he attempted to ward off a blow aimed at his head. The murderous character of the assault on the Deputy Superintendent of Police will be evident from the fact that four persons were assaulted and injured in attempting to rescue him. He was, however, rescued and removed to the excise shop in an unconscious condition. The crowd began to press upon the police and stone them from the north, east and west. They were ordered to retire towards the excise shop and form up. This afforded them some protection. The assembly having become hostile and riotous their object being to overpower the police and rescue the volunteers, it became the duty of the police under section 128 C. P. C., to arrest the rioters and to disperse the crowd by force. The dispersal was absolutely necessary for their personal safety. But as the former course was impossible in view of the numerical strength of the rioters, they were commanded to disperse at once, otherwise they would be fired upon and dispersed. But the only response was a volley of clods, stones and pegs and pointed bamboos. The District Magistrate was twice hit on his hat with clods while ordering the mob to disperse. With a view to frighten away the crowd, the order to fire blank was given. The mob at first showed signs of retreat. But suddenly one of the volunteers shouted out "blank fire, this is nothing" and incited the mob to violence. Thereupon the rioters rushed forward and began to shout that it was nothing, and volleys of missiles continued to be poured upon the police force. Most of the armed force-men were hit with stones and some injured. The attitude of the mob became still more aggressive. Buckshot was fired. One of the wounded volunteers Mafizuddi Shekh of Rajshahi had managed to escape from the place of confinement as the constable told off to guard him had to fall in with the rest. This man joined the rioters and was hit on the leg by a buckshot. He dangled his leg in the air and excited the mob saying, "I have not been hurt, there is nothing in the shot, you go on beating the salas." "You brother, you see how I am hit and my blood dropping." Thereupon the mob grew more infuriated and attempted to rush and overwhelm the force. Thousands of stones, clods, pieces of bamboos were then showered upon them. As a last resort ball cartridges were ordered to be fired. When three or four persons were knocked down the crowd began to disperse and the order to "cease fire" was given. In all 93 rounds of blank, 49 rounds of buckshot and 35 rounds of ball were fired. From the above it would be quite clear that the police were forced to fire in self-defence. It would be observed that rule 180 (IX), Police Regulations, Bengal, Part III, which prohibits blank fire was violated. This was done only to avoid bloodshed.

7. A rough plan of the place of occurrence is annexed to this report. (Exhibit 2.) The place where the armed force were drawn up, the direction from which missiles were hurled at them, the direction in which they fired and the places where the dead and wounded were found have all been shown in it. It would appear that they fired in the direction from which the missiles were coming and there are no good grounds for supposing that the firing was indiscriminate. It should, however, be mentioned that a case under section 147, C. P. C. and 353, I. P. C., has been instituted against the rioters which is now under police investigation.

8 Four witnesses who were apparently hostile said that the armed constables had assaulted the crowd or slapped a volunteer. This is not supported by any of the more reliable witnesses. It is also improbable in itself as the constables were under the eye of their superior officers. It is not a fact as has been alleged in some quarters that some cattle were killed.

9. The number of casualties on the spot was four dead and six wounded. A careful search was made for wounded persons but none else was found. A local medical practitioner, Amulya Charan Ray, was called and he rendered first aid to the wounded. He was also requested by the District Magistrate to accompany the injured persons to Sirajganj on payment of proper fees, but he refused to go on the ground of his wife's illness. Considerable difficulty was experienced in securing carts for them. Eventually four carts were secured and the dead and wounded taken to the Sirajganj hospital. One of the wounded died on the way to the hospital. It should, however, be stated that two wounded men were carried in a cart along with a dead body, which was, however, separated from them by the carter who sat between them. The injured persons were facing towards the back of the cart while the corpse was placed between the carter and the bullock. This was unavoidable in a difficult situation. The wounded men were provided with as much straw as could be had on the spot. Every facility was given to the friends and relatives of the wounded to help them.

10. Next morning, the people were informed by beat of drum to produce any wounded or dead person either before the District Magistrate at Salanga camp or to take them to the Sirajganj hospital at the expense of the Government. A dead body was produced before the District Magistrate. As no conveyance could in spite of all efforts be got to take the body to Sirajganj, it was made over to the relatives. He had a gunshot wound in the lower part of the body. This injury was alleged to be a bayonet wound, but on turning the body over it was discovered that a ball was lodged on the other side of the body opposite the wound which clearly indicated that it was a gunshot wound No injured person, however, appeared before the District Magistrate, although he halted at Salanga for three days after the occurence. It was said that they had kept away out of fear but they were assured that no harm would be done nor any charge laid against them. Still none appeared. For three days the volunteers moved from village to village and collected 18 wounded persons at the Salanga Congress office and placed them under the treatment of Dr. Annada Gobinda Chakrabarti, who was deputed there by the Sirajganj Congress Committee. Sub-Inspector Dinesh Chandra Ray of Raiganj was deputed to record their names and nature of injuries and also to send them to the Sirajganj hospital. They gave their names and showed their injuries to the Sub-Inspector, but all but one absolutely refused to go to Sirajganj. Subsequently the District Magistrate and the Superintendent of Police visited and requested them to go to the Sirajganj hospital where they would be properly housed, fed and treated. At first four or five of them had consented but eventually only two agreed and were taken to the hospital. The compounder of the Taras Charitable Dispensary was then brought to Salanga and he has been attending to those who had refused to go to Sirajganj. Their injuries were slight. In all nine injured persons came to the Sirajganj hospital for treatment. From the evidence of Dr. A. G. Chakrabarti it would appear that 22 persons were examined by him. Thus the total casualties are six dead and 31 wounded, of whom only four were seriously injured. Among the dead, one was a Hindu and the rest Mahomedans. All were adults.

11. Names and antecedents of the dead were ascertained on the spot immediately after the occurence. Among them there were two registered criminals whose bodies were found in the front rank of the rioters which would show that the disorderly element of society had taken a prominent part in the riot.

12. The loss of human life is extremely regrettable but from the above account it would appear that volunteers were primarily responsible for it. The police were placed in such a critical and dangerous position that they had no other alternative but to fire upon the mob to extricate themselves from it. Had this course not been adopted they would have been overwhelmed and possibly wiped out. Judging from the past conduct of the people of Salanga and from what had happened at the neighbouring hát at Chandaikona a week before, it would also appear probable that the excise and foreign cloth shops would have been looted, as the volunteers were arrested for picketing them.

District Magistrate.

Verification.

The statements made in paragraphs 1 to 6 and 9 and 14 are true to my knowledge and those contained in paragraphs 7, 8, 10, 11 (a) and (b), 12 and 13 are true to my information and belief. I sign this verification this the thirteenth day of February 1922 at 24, Bedford Lane, in the town of Calcutta.

KHAJE NAZIMUDDIN.

TO THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

The 14th February 1922.

SIR,

With reference to the election petition filed by me yesterday, you directed me to give details regarding paragraphs 8, 9 and 10 therein and accordingly I have the honour to state as follows :—

8. According to the directions contained in Rule XXI of the regulations for the election of members of the Bengal Legislative Council published in the Calcutta Gazette Extraordinary of the 11th August 1920, 3 P.M. was fixed as the hour within which the voters should be inside the polling enclosure, but as a fact many voters and outsiders came inside after the said appointed time which was in contravention of the rule and was an irregularity.

9. (1) The Sub-Registrar of Patarhat was appointed the Polling Officer at that station. Voters freely entered into the said enclosure after the prescribed hours, namely, 3 P.M. Voters were admitted even after candle light, and their votes were recorded in spite of protest by the agents of the candidates. A petition was filed before the said Polling Officer of Patarhat to this effect by the agent of this petitioner as also on behalf of the successful candidate.

(2) No secrecy was maintained in the recording of votes and the candidates' people looked into the ballot papers when they were being recorded.

(3) There was no arrangement for light and this petitioner apprehended that some persons might have voted for two different voters. There was difficulty in identifying the voters in the dark.

(4) Voting papers were not blotted and were hence spoiled in many cases.

(5) Many of the voting papers were not sealed.

According to the Regulation XXVII they were taken out from the ballot box by this Polling Officer after they had been put in by the voters and sealed subsequently.

10. The Polling Officer at Gournadi thana did not observe the Regulation XXVII for the election of members of the Bengal Legislative Council. The said officer sealed only one side of the ballot paper instead of both sides and hence the ballot papers of that thana were not counted.

Your most obedient servant,

KHAJE NAZIMUDDIN.

The minimum speed required to pass the examination at the end of April is 35 words per minute. Certificates are issued for 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60 words per minute. For each of the speed tests there is a corresponding accuracy test in tabulating. Classes are held at 5, 6 and 7 P.M. Fees are the same as for (c).

Combination of the above subjects and reduction of fee.—If a student simultaneously takes up two or three of the subjects (a) to (e), a reduction of Re. 1 per instalment of each of the fees payable by him will be granted: for example, if a student is a member of both the Shorthand and the Elementary Book-keeping classes, he will have to pay instalments of Rs. 2 for each subject instead of Rs. 3 for the session, July to December.

(f), (g), (h), (i) and (j).—Classes are formed in these subjects if a sufficient number of candidates apply for admission. The fee for each subject is Rs. 3 for each series of ten lectures.

(k) Accountancy and Auditing.—There are two courses of year each for ordinary students, or one year for those who are already practising as Auditors, to prepare candidates for the Government examination of Diploma in Accountancy, which qualifies them to obtain the Government license to practise as Auditors. Students of this class have to attend Book-keeping and Mercantile Law classes, for which no extra fee has to be paid. The fee is Rs. 144, payable in advance in four half-yearly instalments of Rs. 36 each in the case of ordinary students and Rs. 72 in two half-yearly instalments of Rs. 36 each in the case of those who are practising as Auditors and hold a provisional license granted by Government.

2. Examinations.—The examination in subjects (a) to (j) is held at the end of April, at the end of the year's course, under the control of the Government Commercial Institute Board, and successful candidates receive certificates signed by the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, and countersigned by the Secretary to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. The examination fee for each subject is Rs. 5.

3. Attendance.—Strict regularity and punctuality of attendance are observed. Students must attend 75 per cent. of the lectures in order to appear at the examination. Classes are not held in the evening on Saturday.

4. Standard of Admission.—Candidates who have attended the lectures of the day course are eligible for admission. Others will be admitted, provided they appear qualified for the class or classes they seek to join.

5. Prizes.—Prizes of Rs. 50 each are offered by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce to the best candidates from the evening classes in subjects (b), (d), (f), (g), (h), (i) and (j). Three medals are offered by the Remington Typewriter Co. to the best three students of either the day or evening classes in the Typewriting examination.

6. Admission.—Candidates for admission should send in their applications and register their names, with a deposit of fees, before the end of June. Candidates who desire to be admitted in December should apply before the end of November.

Resignation of certificate by managers.

12. The managers of a certified school, on giving six months' notice in writing to the Local Government, through the chief inspector, of their intention so to do, may resign the certificate of the school, and, accordingly, at the expiration of six months from the date of the receipt of the notice by the chief inspector (unless before that time the notice is withdrawn), the resignation of the certificate shall take effect, and the school shall cease to be a certified school.

Disposal of inmates when school ceases to be certified.

14. When a school ceases to be a certified school, the youthful offenders or children detained therein shall, by order of the Local Government, be discharged absolutely or on such conditions as the Local Government may impose or be transferred to some other reformatory or industrial school or auxiliary home in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

The Bengal Children Act, 1922.

(Chapter II.—Reformatory and industrial schools.—Chapter III.—Youthful offenders.—Sections 15-18.)

Auxiliary homes.

15. The Local Government may establish auxiliary homes for the reception of any inmates or any classes of inmates of reformatory or industrial schools, or may certify any other such home established before or after the passing of this Act by any other persons, and the certificate may be withdrawn or resigned in like manner as a certificate of a reformatory or industrial school; and every such home shall, for such purposes as may be specified by the Local Government, be treated as part of the school or schools to which it is attached.

Liabilities of managers.

16. The managers of a certified school may decline to receive any youthful offender or child proposed to be sent to them in pursuance of this Act, but when they have once accepted any such offender or child, they shall be deemed to have undertaken to teach and train and, further, if the school is residential, to lodge, clothe and feed him during the whole period for which he is liable to be detained in the school, or until the withdrawal or resignation of the certificate of the school takes effect:

Provided that the Local Government may, on an application made in that behalf by the managers of a certified school, arrange for the transfer of such offender or child to any other reformatory or industrial school.

CHAPTER III.

YOUTHFUL OFFENDERS.

Bail of child or young person.

17. When a person apparently under the age of sixteen years is arrested and cannot be brought forthwith before a Court, the officer in charge of the police-station to which such person is brought may in any case and shall, unless the charge is one of culpable homicide or any other offence punishable with death or transportation, release him on bail, with or without sureties:

Provided that when a girl apparently under the age of sixteen years is arrested, the officer in charge of a police-station who has made the arrest, or before whom the girl has been produced, shall release her at once if any person, who in his opinion is a sufficient surety, enters into a bond for such sum of money as the officer considers sufficient, to produce her before the Court and to appear in her stead, if required, at the police-station.

Custody of child or young person not released on bail.

18. (1) When a person apparently under the age of sixteen years having been arrested is not released on bail as provided in section 17, the officer in charge of the police-station shall cause him to be detained in a place other than a police-station or jail in the prescribed manner, until he can be brought before a Court.

(2) No police-officer shall, however, detain in custody any such person for a longer period than is reasonable under all the circumstances of the case; and such period shall not, in the absence of a special order of a Court, exceed twenty-four hours, exclusive of the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the Court.

Remand or committal to custody.

19. A Court, on remanding or committing for trial a child or young person who is not released on bail as provided in section 17, shall, instead of committing him to prison, order him to be detained in a place other than a police-station or jail in the prescribed manner, for the period for which he is remanded.

Attendance at Court of parent of child or young person charged with an offence, etc

20. (1) When a child or young person is charged with any offence, or when a child is brought before a Court on an application for an order to send him to an industrial school, his parent or guardian may, in any case, and shall, if he can be found and resides within a reasonable distance and the person so charged or brought before the Court is a child, be required to attend at the Court before which the case is heard, during all the stages of the proceedings, unless the Court is satisfied that it would be unreasonable to require his attendance.

(2) When the child or young person is arrested, the officer in charge of the police-station to which he is brought shall forthwith inform the parent or guardian, if he can be found, of such arrest, and shall also cause him to be warned to attend at the Court before which the child or young person will appear.

(3) The parent or guardian, whose attendance is required under this section, shall be the parent or guardian having the actual possession and control of the child or young person:

Provided that if the parent or guardian is a person other than the father, the attendance of the father or, if the father is dead or cannot be found, the attendance of the nearest adult male relative may also be required.

(4) The attendance of the parent of a child or young person shall not be required under this section in any case where the child or young person was, before the institution of the proceedings, removed from the custody or charge of his parent by an order of a Court.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to require the attendance of the mother or the female guardian of a child or young person, if such mother or female guardian does not, according to the customs and manners of the country, appear in public, but any such person may appear before the Court by a pleader or agent.

Restrictions on punishment of children and young persons.

21. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, no child or young person shall be sentenced to death, transportation or imprisonment or committed to prison in default of payment of a fine or in default of furnishing security:

Provided that a young person may be sentenced to imprisonment or committed to prison as aforesaid when the Court certifies that he is of so unruly or so depraved a character that he is not a fit person to be sent to a reformatory school and that none of the other methods in which the case may legally be dealt with is suitable.

(Chapter III.—Youthful offenders.—Sections 22, 23.)

MODE OF SENDING YOUTHFUL OFFENDERS TO REFORMATORY OR INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

Commitment of offenders between twelve and sixteen years of age to reformatory or industrial schools.

22. (1) When a youthful offender, who in the opinion of the Court before which he is charged is twelve years of age or upwards, is convicted of an offence punishable with transportation or imprisonment, the Court may, in addition to or in lieu of sentencing him according to law to any other punishment, order that he be sent to a reformatory school:

Provided that when the offender is ordered to be sent to a reformatory school he shall not in addition be sentenced to imprisonment.

(2) When a youthful offender of twelve years of age or upwards has been sentenced to transportation or imprisonment, the Local Government may direct that, in lieu of undergoing or completing such sentence, he shall be sent to a reformatory school; and thereupon the offender shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act as if he had been originally sentenced to detention in a reformatory school.

(3) When a youthful offender, who in the opinion of the Court before which he is charged is under twelve years of age, is convicted of an offence punishable with death, transportation or imprisonment, the Court may order that he be sent to an industrial school.

(4) When a youthful offender of the age of twelve or thirteen years, who has not previously been convicted, is convicted of an offence punishable with transportation or imprisonment, and the Court is satisfied that the youthful offender should be sent to an industrial school, but, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, should not be sent to a reformatory school, and is also satisfied that the character and antecedents of the youthful offender are such that he will not exercise an evil influence over the other inmates of an industrial school, the Court may order the youthful offender to be sent to an industrial school after previously ascertaining that the managers are willing to receive him:

Provided that the Local Government may, on the application of the managers of the industrial school, by order, transfer the youthful offender to a reformatory school.

(5) When a young person has been ordered by a Court to give security under section 106 or section 118 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and has failed to do so, the Court which made the order may order such young person to be sent to a reformatory school. Act V of 1898.

Period of detention.

23. Every order, in pursuance of which a youthful offender or child is sent to a reformatory or industrial school, shall specify the time for which the youthful offender or child is to be detained in the school, being—

(a) in the case of a youthful offender sent to a reformatory school, not less than two and not more than five years, but not in any case extending beyond the time when the youthful offender will, in the opinion of the Court, attain the age of eighteen years; and

(b) in the case of a child sent to an industrial school, such time as to the Court may seem proper for the teaching and training of the child, but not in any case extending beyond the time when the child will, in the opinion of the Court, attain the age of sixteen years.

OTHER WAYS OF DEALING WITH YOUTHFUL OFFENDERS.

Power to discharge youthful offender or to commit him to suitable custody.

24. A Court may, if it shall think fit, instead of directing any youthful offender to be detained in a reformatory or industrial school, order him to be—

(a) discharged after due admonition, or

(b) committed to the custody of his parent or guardian or any adult relative, or failing any such person, or if any such person is found unfit by the Court, then to the custody of any trustworthy and respectable person, on such parent, guardian, relative or person executing a bond, with or without sureties, as the Court may require, to be responsible for the good behaviour of the youthful offender for any period not exceeding twelve months, and the Court may, in addition to such order, make an order that the youthful offender be placed under the supervision of a person to be named by the Court.

Power to order parent to pay fine, etc.

25. (1) When a child or young person is convicted of an offence punishable with fine and the Court is of opinion that the case would be best met by the imposition of a fine, whether with or without any other punishment, the Court may, in any case, and shall, if the offender is a child, order that the fine be paid by the parent or guardian of the child or young person, unless the Court is satisfied that the parent or guardian cannot be found or that he has not conduced to the commission of the offence by neglecting to exercise due care of the child or young person.

(2) An order under this section may be made against a parent or guardian who, having been required to attend, has failed to do so, but, save as aforesaid, no such order shall be made without giving the parent or guardian an opportunity of being heard.

(3) Any order directing that a parent or guardian shall pay a fine under this section may be enforced as though it were an order passed under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. Act V of 1898.

(4) A parent or guardian may appeal against any such order as if it had been an order passed in proceedings against himself.

The Bengal Children Act, 1922.

(Chapter III.—Youthful offenders.—Chapter IV.—Mode of sending neglected children to industrial schools.—Sections 26, 27.)

Detention in the case of certain crimes committed by children

26. (1) When a child is convicted of an offence of so serious a nature that the Court is of opinion that no punishment which under the provisions of this Act it is authorized to inflict is sufficient, the Court shall order the offender to be kept in safe custody in such place or manner as it thinks fit, and shall report the case for the orders of the Local Government.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 21, the Local Government may order any such child to be detained in such place and on such conditions as they think fit, and whilst so detained the child shall be deemed to be in legal custody:

Provided that no period of detention so ordered shall exceed the maximum period of imprisonment to which the child could have been sentenced for the offence committed:

Provided also that at any time during the period of such detention the Local Government may, if they think fit, direct that in lieu of such detention the youthful offender be kept in a reformatory school until he has attained the age of eighteen.

CHAPTER IV.

MODE OF SENDING NEGLECTED CHILDREN TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

Children liable to be sent to industrial schools.

27. (1) In any area to which the Local Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, direct that this section or any portion of it shall apply, a Court having jurisdiction under this Act—

(i) upon receiving a petition in this behalf, or

(ii) upon a police report, or

(iii) upon its own knowledge or suspicion,

may, either by a summons to the parent or guardian of a child apparently under the age of fourteen years or by a warrant to be executed by a police-officer not below the rank of sub-inspector or by some other person authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, order the production of such child on such a day as may be specified in the summons or warrant if the Court has reason to believe that the child—

(a) lives by begging; or

(b) is destitute, not being an orphan and having both parents or his surviving parent, or in the case of an illegitimate child his mother, undergoing transportation or imprisonment; or

(c) is under the care of a parent or guardian who, by reason of criminal or drunken habits, is unfit to have the care of the child; or

(d) is under the care of a parent or guardian who habitually neglects or cruelly ill-treats the child; or

(e) frequents the company of any reputed thief or prostitute; or

The Bengal Children Act, 1922.

(Chapter IV.—Mode of sending neglected children to industrial schools.—Section 27.)

(f) is living in circumstances calculated to cause, encourage or favour the seduction or prostitution of the child.

(2) In any such area, any person authorized by the Local Government in this behalf may bring before a Juvenile Court or Court of a Magistrate having jurisdiction under this Act any child apparently under the age of fourteen years who—

(a) is found in any street or place of public resort begging or receiving alms (whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing, offering anything for sale, or otherwise), or being in any such street or place for the purpose of so begging or receiving alms; or

(b) is found wandering and not having any home or settled place of abode, or visible means of subsistence, or is found wandering and having no parent or guardian, or a parent or guardian who does not exercise proper guardianship; or

(c) is found destitute, not being an orphan and having both parents or his surviving parent, or in the case of an illegitimate child his mother, undergoing transportation or imprisonment; or

(d) frequents the company of any reputed thief or prostitute; or

(e) lives in houses of ill-fame; or

(f) is subject to cruel treatment;

and the Court before which a child is brought as coming within one of those descriptions shall examine the information and record the substance of such examination, and shall, if it thinks that there are sufficient grounds for inquiring further, fix a date for such inquiry.

(3) On the date fixed for the production of the child under sub-section (1) or for the inquiry under sub-section (2), or on any subsequent date to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the Court shall hear and record all evidence which may be adduced and consider any cause which may be shown why an order sending the child to an industrial school should not be passed and make any further inquiry it thinks fit.

(4) If, after inquiry, the Court is satisfied that it is expedient to send the child to an industrial school, it shall pass an order to that effect.

(5) If, after inquiry, the Court is satisfied that the child has been living by begging at the instance or for the profit of any person who is a professional keeper of begging children, then the Court may direct such person to appear before it and, after hearing him in his defence, may, in its discretion, direct him to pay towards the cost of the proceedings any amount not exceeding twenty-five rupees, and such cost shall be realizable under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as if it were a fine. Act V of 1898.

The Bengal Children Act, 1922.

(Chapter IV.—Mode of sending neglected children to industrial schools.—Chapter V.—Maintenance and treatment of persons in reformatory or industrial schools or under custody.—Sections 28-31.)

Power to commit child or young person to suitable custody.

28. (1) When under this Act a Court is empowered to order a child to be sent to an industrial school, the Court, in lieu of ordering him to be so sent, may make an order for the committal of the child to suitable custody in the prescribed manner, until he attains the age of sixteen years, or for any shorter period.

(2) Any person authorized by the Local Government in this behalf may bring before a Juvenile Court or Court of a Magistrate having authority to exercise powers under this Act and having jurisdiction in the case any young person apparently of the age of fourteen or fifteen years so circumstanced, that if he were a child, he would come within one or other of the descriptions mentioned in section 27, and the Court, if satisfied, after inquiry in the manner prescribed by section 27, sub-sections (2) and (3), that it is expedient so to deal with him, may make an order for his committal to suitable custody in the prescribed manner, until he attains the age of sixteen years, or for any shorter period.

(3) The Court which makes an order committing a child or young person to suitable custody under this section may, in addition, order that the child or young person be placed under the supervision of a person to be named by the Court.

Power to Local Government to restore child to parent or relative.

29. The Local Government, at the request of the Court or on the application of a parent or relative of the child, may make an order directing the restitution on such conditions as may be specified in the order of any child, who having been dealt with by a Court under section 27, sub-section (4), has either been sent to an industrial school or committed under section 28, to such parent or relative of the child as the Local Government may select; and the order passed by the Court in respect of such child shall thereupon be deemed to be modified accordingly.

Care of girls.

30. If it appears to a Court, on the complaint of any person, that a girl under the age of sixteen years is being treated with cruelty by her parent or guardian or that such girl, with the knowledge of her parent or guardian, is exposed to the risk of seduction or prostitution or living a life of prostitution, the Court may direct the parent or guardian to enter into a recognizance to exercise due care and supervision in respect of such girl.

CHAPTER V.

MAINTENANCE AND TREATMENT OF PERSONS IN REFORMATORY OR INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS OR UNDER CUSTODY.

Contribution of parent.

31. (1) The Court which makes an order for the detention of a youthful offender or child in a reformatory or industrial school, or for the committal of a child or young person to suitable custody under this

The Bengal Children Act, 1922.

(Chapter V.—Maintenance and treatment of persons in reformatory or industrial schools or under custody.—Sections 32—33.)

Act, may order the parent or other person liable to maintain the youthful offender, young person or child to contribute to his maintenance, if able to do so, in the prescribed manner.

(2) The Court, before making an order under sub-section (1), shall inquire into the circumstances of the parent or other person liable to maintain the youthful offender, young person or child, and shall record the evidence, if any, in the presence of the parent or such other person, as the case may be, or, when his personal attendance is dispensed with, in the presence of his pleader.

(3) The persons liable to maintain a youthful offender, young person or child shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), include, in the case of illegitimacy, his putative father against whom an order under section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, has already been passed, or who has been otherwise declared to be the putative father by any competent Court or authority : Act V of 1898

Provided that where the youthful offender, young person or child is illegitimate and an order for his maintenance has been made under section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the Court shall not ordinarily make an order for contribution against the putative father, but may order the whole or any part of the sums accruing due under the said order for maintenance to be paid to such person as may be named by the Court, and such sums shall be applied by him towards the maintenance of the youthful offender, young person or child.

(4) Any order under this section may be enforced in the same manner as an order under section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Boarding out of children

32. The managers of an industrial school to which a child under the age of eight years is sent may, with the consent in writing of the chief inspector, board the child out with any suitable person until the child reaches the age of ten years, and thereafter for such longer period, with the consent in writing of the chief inspector, as the managers consider to be advisable in the interests of the child, subject to the exercise by the managers of such powers as to supervision, recall, and otherwise as may be prescribed ; and, when a child is so boarded out, he shall, nevertheless, be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be a child detained in the school, and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly, so far as possible.

Placing out on license.

33. (1) When a youthful offender or child is detained in a reformatory or industrial school, the managers of the school may, at any time, with the consent in writing of the chief inspector, by license, permit the youthful offender or child, on such conditions as may be prescribed, to live with any trustworthy and respectable person named in the license willing to receive and take charge of him with a view to train him for some useful trade or calling.

The Bengal Children Act, 1922.

(Chapter V.—Maintenance and treatment of persons in reformatory or industrial schools or under custody.—Sections 34, 35.)

(2) Any license so granted shall be in force until revoked or forfeited by the breach of any of the conditions on which it was granted.

(3) The managers of the school may, at any time by order in writing, revoke any such license, and order the youthful offender or child to return to the school, and shall do so at the desire of the person to whom the youthful offender or child is licensed.

(4) If the youthful offender or child refuses or fails to return to the school, the managers of the school may, if necessary, arrest him, or cause him to be arrested, and may take him, or cause him to be taken, back to the school.

(5) The time during which a youthful offender or child is absent from a reformatory or industrial school in pursuance of a license under this section shall be deemed to be part of the time of his detention in the school:

Provided that, when a youthful offender or child has failed to return to the school on the license being revoked or forfeited, the time which elapses after his failure so to return shall be excluded in computing the time during which he is to be detained in the school.

Power to order parent to produce a youthful offender or child who refuses to return to a school.

34. (1) When a license has been revoked or forfeited and the youthful offender or child refuses or fails to return to the school, a Court, if satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for believing that his parent or guardian could produce the youthful offender or child, may issue a summons requiring the parent or guardian to attend at the Court on such a day as may be specified in the summons, and to produce the child, and, if he fails to do so without reasonable excuse, he shall, in addition to any other liability to which he may be subject under the provisions of this Act or any other law, be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees.

(2) Any order directing that a parent or guardian shall pay a fine under this section may be enforced as though it were an order passed under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. Act V of 1898.

Penalty for abetting escape of youthful offender or child.

35. Whoever—

(a) knowingly assists or induces, directly or indirectly, a youthful offender or child detained in or placed out on license from a reformatory or industrial school to escape from the school or from any person with whom he is placed out on license; or any child or young person to escape from the person to whose custody he is committed under this Act; or

(b) knowingly harbours, conceals, or prevents from returning to school, or to any person with whom he is placed out on license, or to the person to whose custody he is committed under this Act, a youthful shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to both.

36. (1) The Local Government may, at any time, order a youthful offender or a child to be discharged from a reformatory or industrial school either absolutely or on such conditions as the Local Government approve.

(2) The Local Government may order—

(a) a youthful offender or child to be transferred from one reformatory school to another, or from one industrial school to another ;

(b) a youthful offender under the age of fourteen years detained in a reformatory school to be transferred to an industrial school ;

(c) a young person detained in an industrial school, who is found to be exercising an evil influence over the other inmates of the school or who is guilty of a serious breach of the rules of the school or of escaping from the school, to be transferred to a reformatory school :

Provided that the whole period of the detention of the youthful offender, young person or child shall not be increased by the transfer.

CHAPTER VI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Juvenile Courts.

37. (1) The Local Government may provide for the establishment for any district or other local area of one or more separate Courts for the hearing of charges against children or young persons or of applications for orders or licenses relating to a child or young person at which the attendance of the child or young person is required.

(2) Where no such separate Court has been established, the Court before which a child or young person is brought shall, unless the child or young person is charged jointly with any other person not being a child or young person, whenever practicable, sit either in a different building or room from that in which the ordinary sittings of the Court are held or on different days or at different times from those at which the ordinary sittings are held.

(Chapter VI.—Miscellaneous.—Sections 39—41.)

person, the Court shall make due inquiry as to the age of that person and for that purpose shall take such evidence as may be forthcoming at the hearing of the case, and shall record a finding thereon, stating his age as nearly as may be.

(2) An order or judgment of the Court shall not be invalidated by any subsequent proof that the age of such person has not been correctly stated by the Court, and the age presumed or declared by the Court to be the age of the person so brought before it shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the true age of that person and, where it appears to the Court that the person so brought before it is of the age of sixteen years or upwards, the person shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed not to be a child or young person.

Provision as to religious persuasion.

39. (1) In determining the reformatory or industrial school to which a youthful offender or child is to be sent under this Act, the Court shall endeavour to ascertain the religious persuasion to which the youthful offender or child belongs and shall, if possible, select a school in which facilities are afforded for instruction in his religion, and shall pass an order to that effect.

(2) Where a child or young person is committed to suitable custody under this Act, the Court in determining the person to whose custody the child or young person shall be committed shall endeavour in like manner to ascertain the religion of the child or young person and shall, if possible, select a person of the same religion, or a person who gives such undertaking as seems to the Court sufficient that the child or young person shall be brought up in accordance with the religion of such child or young person, and shall pass an order to that effect.

(3) Where under section 32 or section 33 a child or a youthful offender is boarded out or is permitted by license to live with any other person, the manager of the school shall select for this purpose a person of the same religion as the child or youthful offender, or a person who gives a satisfactory undertaking that the child or the youthful offender shall be brought up in accordance with the religion of such child or youthful offender.

Penalty for cruelty to child or young person.

40. If any person over the age of sixteen years, who has the custody, charge or care of any child or young person, assaults, ill-treats, neglects, abandons or exposes such child or young person, or causes such child or young person to be assaulted, ill-treated, neglected, abandoned or exposed in a manner likely to cause such child or young person unnecessary suffering or injury to his health (including injury to or loss of sight or hearing or limb or organ of the body, and any mental derangement), that person shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or with fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or with both.

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, any person to whose custody a child or young person is committed under the provisions of this Act shall, while the order is in force, have the like control over the child or young person as if he were his parent, and shall be responsible for his maintenance and protection, and the child or young person shall continue in his custody notwithstanding that he is claimed by his parent or any other person.

Custody of youthful offenders, young persons and children in places of detention

44. (1) A copy of the order or judgment, in pursuance of which a youthful offender, young person or child is committed to custody in a place of detention provided under this Act, shall be delivered with him to the person in charge of the place of detention, and shall be a sufficient authority for his detention in that place in accordance with the terms thereof.

(2) Any such person shall during such detention and whilst being conveyed to and from the place of detention be deemed to be in legal custody, and, if he escapes, may be arrested without a warrant and be brought back to the place of detention where he was detained.

Inspection of institutions for poor children

45. (1) The Local Government may cause any institution for the reception of poor children or young persons supported wholly or partly by voluntary contributions, and not liable to be inspected by or under the authority of the Government, to be visited and inspected from time to time by persons appointed by the Local Government for the purpose.

(2) Any person so appointed shall have power to enter the institution and to make a complete inspection thereof and of all papers, registers, and accounts relating thereto.

Chapter I.—Preliminary.

1. This Act shall be called the Registration of Chelas Act, 192 .

Short title and extent

It shall extend to the whole of British India :

If the magistrate to whom an application to record an adoption is made is not satisfied as to the particulars hereinbefore mentioned, he shall refuse to record the adoption.

Procedure when no father or guardian of the minor is discoverable.

4. If any sadhu or fakir should wish to adopt as a chela or murid any minor whose father or guardian is not discoverable, he shall present himself together with such minor before the magistrate of the district in which such minor resides or is found and apply in writing that a record of the proposed adoption be made, and the said magistrate shall thereupon proceed as nearly as may be in the manner prescribed by the last preceding section:

Provided that the magistrate of the district may refuse registration if he considers that it is not in the interests of the minor, and may deal with him in one or other of the ways provided for by section 10.

Registration of existing chelas or murids.

5. Every sadhu or fakir who, at the date of the coming into force of this Act, has under his control as a chela or murid any minor shall forthwith present himself together with such minor before the magistrate of the district in which the adoption in fact took place or in which the said sadhu or fakir generally resides, and apply in writing that a record of the alleged adoption be made, and such magistrate shall thereupon proceed as nearly as may be in the manner prescribed by section 3 or section 4 of this Act.

(2) If a sadhu or fakir, who has obtained a certificate of registration, dies leaving a minor chela or murid, it shall not be lawful for his successor to keep the chela or murid in his custody without obtaining a certificate of registration as provided for in this Act.

Chapter III.—Offences.

Sadhu or fakir found with uncertificated minor.

8. After the expiry of one year from the date of the coming into force of this Act, any sadhu or fakir, in whose custody any minor, not being his natural-born son, may be found, and who cannot produce a certificate of adoption in respect of such minor granted under the provisions of this Act, shall be punishable in respect of the first offence with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with both, and in respect of any subsequent offence with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with rigorous imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both.

Father of uncertificated minor.

9. The father of any minor in respect of whom in the circumstances mentioned in the last preceding section no certificate has been granted shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees or with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, unless he can show that the minor has become associated with the sadhu or fakir against his father's wishes and in circumstances beyond his control and that at the time the said minor disappeared from his custody he reported such disappearance to the police or made a complaint to a magistrate.

Power of magistrate to dispose of uncertificated minor.

10. (1) Where any minor is found in the custody of a sadhu or fakir who cannot produce a certificate granted under this Act, any magistrate making an inquiry under section 8 may direct that the minor be restored to his father or guardian, if discoverable, or be made over to any respectable person, of the same religion as the minor, who is willing to take charge of such minor, and may obtain an agreement in writing from such person that the minor will be properly taken care of and duly instructed in some trade, profession or calling by the exercise of which he may be able to earn his own livelihood, or, failing such person, be disposed of in any manner to be provided for by rules framed by the Local Government under section 14.

(2) Upon complaint made to any magistrate by or on behalf of any minor, in respect of whom such agreement as aforesaid shall have been executed, of refusal or neglect to provide for him or to teach him according to the agreement, or of cruelty or other ill treatment by his master or by the agent under whom he shall have been placed by his master, the magistrate may summon the master or his agent, as the case may be, if he is within his jurisdiction, to appear before him at a reasonable time to be stated in the summons to answer the complaint, and at such time, whether the master or his agent be present or not (the service of the summons being proved), may examine into the matter of the complaint and, upon proof thereof, may cancel the agreement and assess upon the offender whether he shall be the master or his agent a reasonable sum for the benefit of the minor not exceeding Rs. 500, and if the offender shall not pay the sum so assessed may levy the same by distress and sale of his goods and chattels and if the offender shall not be the master, but his agent, by distress and sale of goods and chattels of his master also.

Sadhus or fakirs from other provinces.

11. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, if any sadhu or fakir against whom proceedings are being taken under section 8 of this Act alleges that the minor came under his control in some place outside the territories to which this Act applies, the magistrate in charge of such proceedings may by order direct him to furnish within a time specified therein evidence of the manner in which he obtained possession of the minor and may during such time remand to custody either the sadhu or fakir, or the minor, or both, or take bail for their appearance before him on any specified date.

If the magistrate should find that the adoption was made with the consent of the parent or guardian of the minor, or that the parent or guardian of the minor cannot be traced, but that the adoption is in the interest of the minor, the magistrate shall either grant to the sadhu or fakir a certificate as provided for by section 3 or shall send the parties concerned to the magistrate of the district in which proceedings under section 8 are being taken with recommendation that such certificate be granted, and the district magistrate shall accordingly grant such certificate. But if the magistrate should find that the circumstances of the case do not justify the granting of a certificate he may then proceed as provided for by clause 10:

Provided that this will not apply to the case of a minor who is a natural-born son of a sadhu or fakir and is found so begging in company of his father.

If satisfactory evidence be furnished that the possession of such minor is legitimate, the magistrate shall record the circumstances and either grant to the sadhu or fakir a certificate as provided for by section 3, or send the parties concerned to the district magistrate with a recommendation that such certificate be granted.

If no satisfactory evidence as to the origin of the possession of such minor be produced, the magistrate shall direct that the minor be taken from the sadhu and be dealt with as provided in section 10.

Disposal of minor found begging.

12. Any minor found begging in any street or public place, whether under the pretext of offering anything for sale or otherwise may be dealt with in the manner provided for by section 10 of this Act.

Offences by whom cognisable.

13. (1) Any police officer not below the rank of a sub-inspector may arrest without a warrant any person who appears to him to be committing an offence under section 8 of this Act.

(2) All offences provided for by this Act shall be bailable.

Chapter IV.—Miscellaneous.

Power of Local Government to make rules.

14. The Local Government may frame rules prescribing—

(a) the form of registers to be maintained under this Act;

(b) the form of certificate to be granted under this Act;

(c) the form of agreement which may be obtained under section 10;

(d) the fees, if any, payable on the registration of an adoption;

(e) the maintenance at the headquarters of each district of a record of all registrations effected in the United Provinces under this Act;

(f) the manner of disposing of unclaimed orphans under section 10;

(g) generally for the more effectual carrying out of the purpose of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill aims at the removal of a standing grievance in the whole country that minors, both Hindus and Muhammadans, are forced or induced to become sadhus or fakirs before the age of 18 years, who generally lead a life of mendicancy or commit crimes. I moved a resolution in the United Provinces Council, and a committee under rule 13 of the then Council Rules was appointed to draft a Bill. The committee after making inquiries drafted a Bill in 1919 and submitted it to the Government, but as the Councils were going to be reformed, no further action was taken on the subject. The majority of opinion received on the subject were unanimous in having some legislation on the subject. As it is an All-India subject, I would like to introduce the enclosed Bill in the Council of State. It is a very mild measure and requires every person, who gets a minor, to have him registered in the district from which he takes the boy. The Bill concerns only the boys and not the girls. If no registration will be made and a person will be found in custody of any unregistered minor, he shall be required to get a certificate of registration or make over the boy to the officer in charge who would make him over, for being brought up, to any private individual or to any recognised orphanage. The provisions of the Bill are tentative and liable to necessary changes, which can be made after the introduction of the Bill in the Council.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 28th February, 1922 :—

No. 12 OF 1922.

BILL

Further to amend the Indian Penal Code.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Penal Code; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XLV of 1860

Short title

1. This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 192 .

Amendment of section 375, Act XLV of 1860

2. In section 375 of the Indian Penal Code for the word "twelve" in both places where it occurs, the word "fourteen" shall be substituted. XLV of 1860

Repeal of Act X of 1891

3. The Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1891, is hereby repealed. X of 1891.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to raise in the case of rape the age of consent of the female concerned from twelve to fourteen years by substituting the word "fourteen" for the word "twelve" in the definition of the offence as given in section 375 of the Indian Penal Code, in the clause marked "Fifthly" and in the "Exception" of the section.

The reasons for this amendment are that the age of consent, for the the purposes of the offence of rape according to the Original Penal Code as it was framed in 1860, was fixed at ten years. The more advanced members of the Society have always been questioning the correctness of the Legislature in this respect, and had been trying to press upon the public as well as upon the Legislature the necessity of raising this limit of age, but had been helpless to meet the opposition of the orthodox section of the country until the inhuman consequences of this legislation were judicially established in the case of Queen Empress versus Hurree Mohan Mythee (18 Cal. I. L. R. page 49), in which the accused husband who was found to have caused the death of his wife aged eleven years and three months by an act of sexual intercourse with her, could not be charged with the offence of rape. This was an instance of destruction of human life of an innocent girl of immature age by an inhuman act of her husband; though a girl of such immature age is neither capable of feeling any sense of carnal knowledge, nor is physically developed for sexual intercourse; and her consent to the cohabitation is no consent in the eye of the law. This case, however, had the effect of drawing the attention of the Legislature to the injurious consequences resulting from the extremely low age fixed in section 375 of the Indian Penal Code on the lives of girls of immature age by acts of sexual intercourse and of necessitating its amendment by raising the age-limit from ten to twelve years by Act X of 1891. Though since this amendment no other case of homicide has been judicially detected as a consequence of early marriage and consummation with child wives, but it is highly improbable to detect any such cases which are not uncommon amongst families of high classes who allow marriages at so early an age which is still too low and not quite free from danger of the loss of life of immature girls of very weak constitution. In the case published in 18 Cal., page 49, the girl was found to be of strong constitution and the amendment made by Act X of 1891 raising the age of consent to a few months above the age of the girl concerned in the above-mentioned ruling does not provide sufficient safeguard against danger to the life of immature girls of weaker constitution even though slightly exceeding the age of twelve years; while even in the case of the girls of stronger constitution, before puberty the sexual intercourse invariably causes grievious sufferings short of death and produces permanent injury to the proper and regular development of the physical and mental constitution of the girl as well as of the offspring born by such girl. In England Statute 48 and 49 Vict., Cap. 69, sections 4 and 5 prescribe minimum age for consent in the case of offence of rape at sixteen years which is the minimum age at which a girl becomes, according to medical science, fully developed for sexual intercourse and for giving birth to a healthy child without danger to the life or health of herself and of the child. I believe in other civilized countries of Europe and America the age of consent for purposes of the offence of rape is not below sixteen years; and therefore the age of consent of the girl, so far as the offence of rape is concerned, requires to be raised to sixteen years; but having regard to the custom of early marriage still prevailing in this country amongst high classes of Hindus and Muhammadans, only a medical step is recommended for the present, and fourteen years is fixed as the age before which sexual intercourse even by the husband with his wife though consented to by the girl must be legally prohibited and be made an offence within the definition of rape in the Indian Penal Code. This amendment is expected to have the effect of reducing death rate amongst married girls of immature age and amongst infants, and is expected to improve the physical constitution, longevity and mental strength of the progeny.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Forecast of the Rabi Crops of Bengal for 1921-22.

(NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1919-20, the area under summer rice in Bengal has represented some 0·5 per cent of the total area under rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—The rainfall in September and October was sufficient for preparatory tillage and the conditions were generally favourable for the sowings which commenced usually in the normal time. Since then, prolonged drought has set in and the resulting want of moisture has adversely affected the crops in many parts of the province. The late-sown crops have accordingly suffered considerably especially in the western districts. The scanty showers that fell in January and in the first week of February proved too late and inadequate to retrieve the situation. On the whole, the season was satisfactory for the early crops and unfavourable for the late crops.

Acreage.—The normal area under the different rabi crops in the Province dealt with in this forecast is estimated at 3,717,600 acres. The area actually sown this year is reported to be 2,745,900 acres against 2,849,500 acres last year. Of this, the area under summer (boro) rice is returned at 374,800 acres against 426,400 acres of the last year.

Outturn.—According to the estimates of district officers, the outturn of the different rabi crops for the province as a whole works out to 77 per cent. of the normal against 81 per cent. of last year; the returns from the more important rabi districts being as follows:—Nadia 45, Murshidabad 63, Jessore 46, Khulna 95, Burdwan 89, Midnapore 83, Rajshahi 68, Jalpaiguri 93, Darjeeling 107, Rangpur 100, Pabna 50, Malda 81, Dacca 89, Mymensingh 75, Faridpur 77, Bakarganj 83, Tippera 66 and Noakhali 83.

Summer rice crop.—The outturn of summer rice according to district estimates is 77 per cent. of the normal against 81 per cent. last year. The gross yield of the crop for the province, on the basis of a normal yield of 14¾ maunds of clean grain per acre, is thus estimated at 152,000 tons this year against 181,900 tons last year or a decrease of about 16 per cent.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS

For the week ending on the 22nd March 1922.

Summary.—During the week scanty showers fell in places only. Reaping of spring crops is well advanced. The recent rain has slightly improved the situation for jute sowing in parts of Eastern Bengal. Rain is badly needed for the standing spring crops and for the agricultural operations for jute and paddy which are being delayed. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 1·2 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS, INDIA.

CALCUTTA TRADE FLUCTUATIONS.

THE following tables are intended to show the trade by all routes, i.e., by rail, river, canal, road, and sea, of the Calcutta block* in certain selected articles during the ten months, April, 1921, to January, 1922, as compared with the corresponding period of 1920-21 and 1919-20. The statistics have been compiled from returns furnished by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, Railway Audit Offices, Steamer Companies, the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta, the Collectors of the 24-Parganas and Howrah, and the Assistant Engineer, Calcutta Canals.

General Summary.

Imports.—The imports of rice, including paddy†, into Calcutta* by rail, river, canal, road, and sea (coastwise) during the ten months, April, 1921, to January, 1922, amounted to 11,591,000 maunds, as against 8,981,000 maunds in the corresponding period of the preceding year,—an increase of 2,610,000 maunds or 29 per cent, being chiefly due to larger imports of rice from Burma.
